CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

The 27th edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook includes complete coverage of the 1996 European Championship with goalscorers, teams, times of goals, attendances and referees for both the qualifying and final competition.

On the domestic scene, there is a reversion to a player's directory under clubs, with trainees and schoolboys also listed.

Among several new features is a list of foreign international players born outside the UK who played in the FA Premier League and Football League during 1995–96 and increased coverage of reserve team football in the Pontin's League and the Avon Insurance Combination.

The performances of British clubs in Europe are monitored and special articles include those on the Football Trust, Football and the Law plus Referees. Also the special work carried out by Chaplains to clubs is again included.

Amateur, schools, university and women's football plus coverage of non-league soccer, awards, records and the International Directory of all member countries in FIFA are among the regular items.

Transfer fees are given where known. When two clubs have differed as to the amount of a record move, the lower figure has been quoted in both instances. Also the date when a player is signed often varies from one given as his registration.

The Editor would also like to thank Alan Elliott for the Scottish section, Norman Barrett for the Milestones Diary and Ian Vosper for the Obituaries. Thanks are also due to John English who provided his usual painstaking and conscientious reading of the proofs.

The Editor would like to pay tribute to the various organisations who have helped to make this edition complete, especially Sheila Andrew of the Football League, Mike Foster of the FA Premier League and the secretaries of all the FA Premier, Football League and Scottish League clubs for their kind co-operation. The ready availability of Football League secretary David Dent and his staff to answer queries was as usual most appreciated especially Chris Hull and thanks are due in equal measure to the Scottish Football League as well as Adrian Cook and Neil Harrison of the FA Premier League.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editor would also like to express her appreciation of the following individuals and organisations for their co-operation: Glynis Firth, Sandra Whiteside, Lorna Parnell, Debbie Birch (all from the Football League), David C. Thompson of the Scottish League, Alan Dick, Malcolm Brodie, Bob Hennessy, Peter Hughes (English Schools FA), W.P. Goss (AFA), Ken Scott for Vauxhall Conference information, Rev. Nigel Sands, Edward Grayson, Ken Goldman and Grahame Lloyd.

Special thanks are due to Lorraine Jerram of Headline Book Publishing Ltd for her expertise, constant support, unflagging patience, sincerity, understanding and appreciation.

Finally sincere thanks to John Anderson, Simon Dunnington and Geoff Turner and the production staff at Wearset for their efforts in the production of this book which was much appreciated throughout the year.

EDITORIAL

More than 100 full international players born outside the United Kingdom appeared in the FA Carling Premiership and Endsleigh Insurance Football League competitions last season. That figure seems certain to increase during 1996–97.

The trend is likely to accelerate, as borders continue to be pushed aside and the map of Europe merges with itself either through legislation or evolution. There are obvious dangers, not the least of these the possibility that home-grown talent will be stifled. But is that a real threat? Judging by the experience of Manchester United in 1995–96, the development of youth is not only a flourishing exercise, but a rewarding experience. While United's first team achieved the FA Premier League and FA Cup double, the reserves won the Pontin's League and the 'A' team took the Lancashire League.

Apart from a cluster of trainees who became professionals, United signed only three other players during the season, only one of whom a trialist from France appeared in the League team.

Of the first team squad, David Beckham, Nicky Butt, the Neville brothers Gary and Phil, Ryan Giggs and Paul Scholes are all products of United's excellent youth policy.

One of the imports at Old Trafford, Eric Cantona, made the transition from being l'enfant terrible to prodigal son after his suspension. He emerged a changed character without losing any of the outstanding attributes as a player which his wayward temperament had been supposed to sustain. His rehabilitation should have set an example to other so-called members of the genius fraternity in other walks of life, that they, too, can conform without losing any of their special gifts.

Naturally, United have added to their already formidable strength by some overseas purchases in the summer months, but are unlikely to abandon their attitude to youth which has contributed to putting them in the forefront of English football and set the degree at which all others have to aim. Then again, others may argue, is youth worth persevering with after the Bosman judgement?

Of course, for financial reasons, the Old Trafford story cannot be repeated everywhere, but as a blueprint for success it almost defies improvement. However, a healthy competitive league cannot be sustained by the monopoly of one club.

Newcastle United went very close to the championship themselves, buoyed by their tremendous support in the north-east. Liverpool too, maintained the high standards which have become to be expected of them and with the huge sums of money which are being generated by television coming into the game, it is hoped that it will provide all-round benefits to enable many clubs to compete on a more level footing and not solely to provide cash for foreign transfers.

With Euro 96 affording a wider view of foreign talent and allowing England the opportunity to compete against Europe's best, expectations will have increased towards the 1998 World Cup as a result of England finishing as semi-finalists.

The 'golden goals' experiment which were designed to eliminate penalty shoot-outs proved unsuccessful in the tournament, but penalty kicks do allow teams to remain 'unbeaten' simply because results invariably do not reflect this lottery manner of dividing teams; an attractive option! Even so, there seems to be only one solution to deciding matches after extra time: play on until somebody scores a goal. Everything else seems to fly in the face of the spirit of the game.

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL HONOURS

This year the Rothmans Football Honours are presented to the team of the 1995–96 season chosen by members of the Football Writers' Association. Players eligible had to have appeared in FA Carling Premiership matches during the season and there were no fewer than 50 different players nominated.

The most favoured formation was 4-4-2 which had almost as many votes as all other systems combined and the players receiving the highest number of votes were Eric Cantona (who had been chosen as the FWA's Footballer of the Year), Peter Schmeichel and Alan Shearer. Others who came close to gaining a place in the final selection were Alan Wright (Aston Villa), Dan Petrescu (Chelsea), David Seaman (Arsenal), Georgi Kinkladze (Manchester C), Philip Neville (Manchester U), Les Ferdinand (Newcastle U) and Mark Wright (Liverpool).

Manchester United players dominated the listings. There were votes for ten of them and an eleventh was among the substitutes mentioned. Seven of United's contingent figured in the final selection.

Aston Villa had six players receiving recommendation while two other clubs Newcastle and Liverpool had five each. There were four from Arsenal and three each representing Blackburn, Chelsea and Nottingham Forest.

Ruud Gullit's appearance in the team of the season is interesting since he was the only player to be chosen in the eleven after just one season in the FA Carling Premiership, following his arrival from Italy. He has succeeded Glenn Hoddle, the new England team manager, as Chelsea's manager.

Gullit was also the only nominee with a London club to make the final selection and Steve Bruce (Manchester U), the lone player without full international honours. He has since joined Birmingham City.

Alex Ferguson of Manchester United received more than five times the number of votes for manager than his nearest rival Kevin Keegan of Newcastle United. Ferguson achieved a League Championship and FA Cup double for the second time in three years. Roy Evans, the Liverpool manager and Harry Redknapp of West Ham were other managers who came into contention.

MILESTONES DIARY 1995–96

June 1995

Jim Smith new Derby boss ... Liverpool pay British record £8.5m for Stan Collymore ... Norway win Women's World Cup ... Dennis Bergkamp for Arsenal ... Paul Ince leaves Man Utd ... Chelsea get Gullit and Hughes ... Dalglish steps upstairs at Blackburn ... David Pleat new Owls boss ... Wales sack Mike Smith

13 Norwich, having agreed compensation with Wycombe, name former star Martin O'Neill as manager. Man Utd refuse Derby permission to talk to their captain Steve Bruce, wanted as manager. Spurs sign a record four-year kit deal with Pony said to be worth £10m. Germany beat England 3-0 in the quarter-finals of the Women's World Cup.

14 Luton manager David Pleat's move to Sheff Wed on a one-year rolling contract is disputed by chairman David Kohler, whose demand for £300,000 compensation is way over the £40,000 offered.

15 Jim Smith, dismissed as Portsmouth manager 5 months ago, takes over at Derby, his eighth club in 23 years. Charlton make Alan Curbishley sole manager, but will honour the remaining two years of his partner Steve Gritt's contract. Former Sunderland manager Mick Buxton is appointed coach of Zimbabwe.

16 Luton win a temporary High Court injunction to prevent David Pleat taking over at Sheff Wed.

17 Liverpool, having beaten off opposition from Everton, break the British transfer record by paying £8.5m for Forest striker Stan Collymore. Sheff Wed chairman Dave Richards accuses Luton of harming football over the Pleat affair, pointing out that his club have not acted illegally.

18 Norway win the Women's World Cup.

20 Manager Bruce Rioch makes his first signing for Arsenal, paying Inter-Milan £7.5m for Dutch star Dennis Bergkamp in a four-year deal. Bolton appoint Roy McFarland as manager. Ossie Ardiles signs as coach for Mexican side Guadalajara.

21 Spurs complete the £4.5m signing of Palace striker Chris Armstrong. Brian Horton, sacked by Man City at the end of last season, is appointed manager of Huddersfield.

22 Man Utd and England midfielder Paul Ince finally makes up his mind and signs for Inter-Milan in a £7m transfer. Neil Warnock takes charge at Plymouth, as expected, after leaving Huddersfield. The Isthmian League, no longer Diadora, sign a four-year sponsorship deal with football-strip manufacturers ICIS worth about £0.5m.

23 Another coup for Chelsea, as they introduce Ruud Gullit (a free transfer from Sampdoria) to the media – they sign Man Utd striker Mark Hughes for £1.5m, much to the chagrin of Old Trafford faithfuls. Villa sign unsettled Gareth Southgate from Palace for £2.5m.

24 Stan Collymore's move to Liverpool is reportedly jeopardised by Forest's refusal to meet his demand for 5% of the £8.5m fee. In the first tie of the unpopular Inter-Toto Cup, Wimbledon, with most of their first team still on holiday, crash 4-0 to Bursaspor, Turkey, in a match played at Brighton. Coventry sign Luton midfielder Paul Telfer, the fee to be determined.

25 A major managerial shuffle at Premiership champions Blackburn sees Kenny Dalglish's role redefined as "director of football", with his No.2 Ray Harford promoted to "team manager", while England striker Alan Shearer agrees to extend his contract another three years to four. Spurs are the second London club to lose an Inter-Toto Cup tie at Brighton, going down 2-0 to Lucerne of Switzerland.

26 Villa break their transfer record, paying £3.5m for Partizan Belgrade striker Savo Milosevic.

27 Luton abandon their court action concerning David Pleat, who can now take up his managerial duties at Sheff Wed.

28 Wales sack manager Mike Smith after their disappointing Euro Championship qualifying results.

29 Alan Smith, sacked a month ago as Palace manager, formally takes over at Wycombe. With regular keeper Steve Ogrizovic out with a broken leg, Coventry sign 45-year-old Peter Shilton on a short-term contract.

30 Forest use some of their Collymore money to sign Arsenal's Kevin Campbell and Sheff Wed's Chris Bart-Williams, the fees to be decided.

July

More power for Kelly ... Ball new Man City boss ... Roberto Baggio costs Milan £12.9m ... Platt signs for Arsenal, Gascoigne for Rangers ... George Graham banned for year ... Fashanu, Grobbelaar and Segers on match-fixing charge

1 Turkish side Galatasaray's manager Graeme Souness signs his third former Liverpool player – after Barry Venison and Mike Marsh – Welsh striker Dean Saunders from Villa for £2.35m. At the FA's summer meeting, chief executive Graham Kelly is made a director and installed on the executive committee, and the Premier League are given a second seat on the executive; Kelly, whose powerful new role will enable decisions to be made more quickly, moots the possibility of introducing a short winter break in the domestic football programme in four or five years.

2 Man City chairman Francis Lee flies to Marbella to sign holidaying Alan Ball on a three-year contract as manager, provided compensation can be agreed, while Southampton director of football Lawrie McMenemy will take over at the Dell until a replacement is found.

3 Luton youth team coach Terry Westley is appointed caretaker manager.

4 Liverpool complete the British record signing of Stan Collymore from Forest for £8.5m. Gillingham appoint former Bournemouth chief Terry Pulis as manager. Wolves defender Brian Law is arrested for taking a bus without permission and drink-driving.

5 AC Milan sign Juventus superstar Roberto Baggio, 28, in a near-record deal worth £12.9m, while Villa pay Leicester £3.25m for midfielder Mark Draper.

6 Newcastle complete the signing of French star David Ginola from Paris St Germain for £2.5m. With manager Steve Thompson taking over at Notts County, Southend appoint Ronnie Whelan as player-manager.

7 Brighton, obliged to sell their Goldstone Ground after 93 years to settle their debts, are set to share Portsmouth's Fratton Park next year until they fix up a new ground.

8 New Maine Road manager Alan Ball appoints former City player Asa Hartford his No.2.

10 Arsenal sign England captain David Platt from Sampdoria for £4.75m, bringing his aggregate transfer fees to a world record £22.15m, while North of the border Rangers sign another England midfielder, dyed-blond, slimline Paul Gascoigne, from Lazio for £4.3m. Meanwhile the FA inquiry into illegal-payment allegations against former Arsenal manager George Graham begins at a Watford hotel, with the FA employing for the first time in such proceedings an independent QC and producing seven boxes of evidence. QPR sign Reading midfielder Simon Osborn for £1.1m.

12 George Graham is found guilty of taking illegal payments amounting to £425,500 in 1991 and 1992 from agent Rune Hauge's company Interclub Ltd in respect of the previous transfers to Arsenal of Scandinavian players Pal Lydersen and John Jensen.

13 George Graham is banned from football for a year for "misconduct", while the FA accept that he did not sign the players in question to obtain any personal gain. Spurs striker Teddy Sheringham voices concern for the future and seemingly implies that Armstrong for the possibly departing Barmby is not his idea of a fruitful replacement up front.

14 Southampton's new manager is Dave Merrington, 50, coach at the Dell for the last 11 years, while former chief Alan Ball makes his first foray into the transfer market, paying Tbilisi £2m for midfielder Georgi Kinkladze. Fiorentina sign Arsenal's Swedish international midfielder Stefan Schwarz for £2m, and West Ham sign Dutch international striker Marco Boogers from Sparta Rotterdam for £1m. Following the Dublin riot last February, UEFA announce that all matches involving English teams abroad will be considered "high risk".

17 FIFA endorse George Graham's one-year FA ban, making it effective worldwide. Everton sign Derby defender Craig Short for £2.4m.

18 1st Div Palace pay £2.25m plus midfielder Ricky Newman for Millwall's U-21 international midfielder Andy Roberts.

19 Sheff Wed complete the signing of Belgium captain Marc Degryse for £1.5m. Arsenal striker Alan Smith, having failed to recover from a long-term knee injury, announces his retirement. The FA slap a suspended two-year ban on 17-year-old Jamie Hughes of Tranmere, who tested positive in a random drug test in April.

21 The Peruvian referee, Alberto Tejada, who allowed Brazil's controversial equalizer against Argentina in the Copa America is sent home after admitting his mistake when TV replays show a clear handball.

22 Spurs slump to an 8-0 defeat in the Inter-Toto Cup to FC Cologne.

23 Hosts Uruguay beat Brazil on penalties after a 1-1 draw in the final of the Copa America.

24 Five people are charged with match-fixing, including Villa striker John Fashanu, Southampton keeper Bruce Grobbelaar and Wimbledon keeper Hans Segers, and all are bailed to appear at Southampton magistrates' court on 11 Oct. Forest complete the £1.8m signing of 6ft 5in striker Andrea Silenzi from Torino. Everton reach an "amicable" agreement for compensation with dismissed manager Mike Walker. FIFA threaten Germany and Portugal with expulsion from the World Cup if they continue to annul the results of matches in which referees have made crucial mistakes.

25 Ruud Gullit, playing as sweeper, enjoys his first outing for Chelsea with a 3-1 victory in a friendly that draws a capacity 10,000 crowd at Gillingham.

26 QPR sign Australia's captain Ned Zelic from Borussia Dortmund for £1.25m. New signing Dennis Bergkamp hits a 6 min hat-trick in Arsenal's 8-1 victory over Kristianstads in Sweden.

28 Celtic sign German international striker Andreas Thom from Bayer Leverkusen for £2.2m, while Rangers complete their £2.5m signing from Valencia of Russian star Oleg Salenko, scorer of a record 5 goals against Cameroon in a 1994 World Cup match.

29 Liverpool slump to a 5-0 defeat at the hands of European champions Ajax in a four-team tournament in Germany.

30 Rangers beat Sampdoria 2-0 to win the Ibrox Tournament. A crowd of nearly 17,000 at Stamford Bridge provide an estimated £250,000 in a benefit game for former Chelsea central defender Paul Elliott (to wipe out his outstanding legal bill in the unsuccessful court case against Dean Saunders) – thanks largely to the appearance of summer signings Ruud Gullit and Mark Hughes; Portuguese champions Porto hold Chelsea to a 1-1 draw.

31 An independent report by accountants Touche Ross for the year 1993-94 discloses a widening gap between Premiership and Endsleigh League clubs, the former enjoying an average 27% increase per club in operating profit to £1.86m while all Endsleigh divisions increased average losses.

August

Barmby signs for Middlesbrough ... Everton win Charity Shield ... Bobby Gould gets Welsh job ... Rangers scrape into Champions' League ... Johnny Carey dies ... Kanchelskis signs for Everton ... Sugar threatens to sell Spurs

1 Bolton pay a club record £1.5m for Barnsley's N.Ireland central defender Gerry Taggart. Peter Beardsley, 34, announces his latest contract with Newcastle ties him to the club for another 3 years. Celtic draw 2-2 at Goodison in Everton keeper Neville Southall's benefit match, from which he will probably collect about £200,000.

2 Villa striker John Fashanu, 31, bailed last week to appear on match-fixing charges, is forced to retire from the game through a knee injury, having started only 12 matches for the club.
3 Coventry finally seal John Salako's signature for £1.5m, after doubts about the Palace winger's back condition are cleared up.
5 Bryan Robson gets his man, as Spurs' coveted England international, Nick Barmby, 21, agrees to join Middlesbrough for £5.2m. But Andrei Kanchelskis's move to Everton could be in jeopardy – apparently the contract has not been signed – with reports that Man Utd are recalling the Russian international because of demands by his previous club Shakhtyor Donetsk for £1m.
6 Coventry complete the transfer of £1m Derby defender Paul Williams in an exchange deal involving Sean Flynn.
7 Everton refer the Kanchelskis dispute to the Premiership for arbitration. FIFA rule that Bayern Munich must pay Spurs £1.4m for Jürgen Klinsmann.
8 Eric Cantona's request for a transfer is turned down by Man Utd, who are later informed by the FA that they will not be taking any action over an alleged breach of the French star's suspension in a training work-out against Rochdale behind closed doors. Forest must pay Sheff Wed £2.5m for Chris Bart-Williams, a tribunal record, but reach a private settlement with Arsenal, who agree to accept £2.8m for Kevin Campbell plus further sums related to appearances.
9 Nervous Rangers take a meagre first-leg lead at Ibrox as they beat Anorthosis Famagusta 1-0 in their European Cup preliminary-round tie. Newcastle pay nearly £1.6m for Reading keeper Shaka Hislop. A Football League tribunal orders Coventry to pay Luton £1.15m for Paul Telfer. Ruud Gullit shines again in Chelsea's 4-0 win at Birmingham.
10 Eric Cantona agrees to stay at Old Trafford, and the FA clear him to play in practice matches behind closed doors. Rangers keeper Andy Goram asks to be withdrawn from the Scottish squad for next week's European Championship qualifier, preferring to preserve himself for his club career. The FA hand out £25,000 suspended fines for bad disciplinary records last season to QPR (4 dismissals, 97 bookings) and Wimbledon (6, 85), and £10,000 suspended to Burnley, Chester and Fulham.
11 Rune Hauge, the Norwegian agent involved in the George Graham "bung" scandal, is suspended by FIFA pending a full investigation of the case.
12 The League season opens with a full programme of Endsleigh League and Scottish Div 1 to 3 matches, but no Premier League fixtures either side of the border. However, Newcastle gain an impressive 2-0 victory over Spurs at White Hart Lane in Gary Mabbutt's testimonial, while English Premiership clubs win 4 of the 6 friendlies played in Scotland, including Coventry's 5-1 victory at Aberdeen, but Man City are thrashed 5-1 at Hearts. In the Endsleigh, goalkeepers score two goals, Hereford's Chris MacKenzie from an 80-yard punt (only the 10th League keeper since the war to score from his own half) and Swansea's Roger Freestone from the penalty spot.
13 Cup-winners Everton beat Champions Blackburn 1-0 at Wembley in a scrappy Charity Shield match.
14 Despite the visit of Man Utd director and solicitor Maurice Watkins to Russia, the Kanchelskis transfer, hinging on the translation of the original contract between United and Donetsk, looks unlikely to be settled in time for him to be registered for Everton's foray into Europe and, with United refusing to accept Premier League arbitration, Everton have asked UEFA to help.
15 Fast-food chain McDonalds sign a £1.75m, 2-year sponsorship deal with the Premier League.
16 Ally McCoist scores an invaluable goal for Scotland with his first touch after coming on as a second-half sub, giving Scotland a 1-0 win over close rivals Greece in Gp 8 of the European Championship qualifiers. Man Utd call off the Kanchelskis transfer to Everton.
17 Bobby Gould, out of management for nearly two seasons, is the surprise choice as Welsh supremo, their fourth manager in less than two years, beating several other candidates, including Ron Atkinson, Howard Kendall and Mike Walker. The Kanchelskis saga is not over yet, as the winger returns from Russian international duty and threatens to train with Everton, while Man Utd agree to let the FA arbitrate.
19 A record-equalling 13 League dismissals in one day (set in December 1985) includes one in the Premiership on its opening day – Blackburn keeper Tim Flowers – although an early Shearer penalty suffices to give the champions the points at Ewood Park against QPR. After two matches, Millwall are the only Div 1 side on 6pts. There are no big surprises in the 2nd round of the Scottish Coca-Cola Cup, where Partick win 7-0 at Berwick and Dundee 6-0 at E.Stirling, McCann hitting 4. The FA reluctantly cancel England's fixture with Croatia scheduled for Wembley on 6 Sep because of the escalation of war in the Balkans.
21 Colombia will replace Croatia as England's next opponents. The "Voice of Football", Len Martin, Grandstand results reader for 37 years, dies at 76. The FA ask Birmingham for a report on winger Ricky Otto's arrest on Sunday (he was cautioned and released without charge) after police found cannabis in his car.
22 In the 1st round of the Coca-Cola Cup Rotherham come back against Scunthorpe from a 4-1 deficit to force extra time and then take the tie 6-4 on aggregate, a feat emulated by Peterborough against Swansea, without the extra time goals, so they go through on away goals.
23 Rangers clinch a place in the Champions' League, albeit unconvincingly with a 0-0 draw in Famagusta, while Irish club Glenavon reach the 1st round of the UEFA Cup with a 1-0 victory (1-0 agg) over Hafnarfjordur in Iceland. New Wales manager Bobby Gould enlists the help of Ian Rush and Neville Southall in coaching capacities. Former Man Utd captain and Irish international Johnny Carey dies at 75.
25 The Kanchelskis deal finally goes through, but Man Utd are unhappy about Everton chairman Peter Johnson's criticism. George Graham receives reasons in writing – not made public at this time – for his year's suspension from the FA and has 14 days to appeal.
26 Middlesbrough, after last-minute doubts that their new Cellnet Riverside Stadium would be ready, celebrate its opening with an inaugural 2-0 victory over Chelsea. Andrei Kanchelskis makes his début for Everton, who beat Southampton 2-0 with goals scored by their other foreign players, Limpar and Amokachi. The Premier League season starts in Scotland.
28 Man Utd beat Blackburn 2-1 despite having Roy Keane sent off for 'diving' in a match which sees referee David Elleray caution 7 players. Spurs chairman Alan Sugar, referring to incidents after Saturday's home defeat by Liverpool, insists he will sell the club if he or his family suffer further abuse from the fans.
29 Coventry winger John Salako makes a surprise return to the England squad, but the absence of Inter's Paul Ince and Southampton's Matt Le Tissier from Terry Venables' immediate midfield plans proves more newsworthy, while up front the omission of Ferdinand and Cole is also cause for comment. England captain David Platt is an immediate withdrawal from the team to play Colombia, as he requires knee surgery.
31 Liverpool striker Stan Collymore withdraws from the England squad with an ankle injury, while Everton's Scottish striker Duncan Ferguson undergoes a second hernia operation which will keep him out for as much as two months, taking him up to his court appeal against a custodial sentence for an onfield incident while a Rangers player. The FA announce that the Technical Control Board will meet soon to consider a winter break for the Premiership, a proposal that is gaining momentum within the game.

September
Higuita performs 'scorpion' at Wembley ... Liverpool sign McAteer ... Spurs' ban on Venables lifted ... Bosman verdict threatens transfer chaos ... Dynamo Kiev thrown out of Europe for bribery ... Dave Bowen dies ... Man Utd out of UEFA Cup

3 In the only European Championship qualifier, N.Ireland help the Republic's cause by holding leaders Portugal to a 1-1 draw in Oporto, thanks largely to a magnificent display of goalkeeping by man-of-the-match Alan Fettis of Hull.
4 The first managerial casualties of the season are Bury's Mike Walsh and Lincoln's Sam Ellis, both in Div 3. Lincoln make Steve Wicks their 7th manager in 8 years, while Walsh's assistant Stan Ternent takes over as caretaker at Bury.
5 Terry Venables' team to play Colombia tomorrow is full of youth and dash, with Liverpool's Jamie Redknapp, 22, winning his first England cap in midfield, where he will join club-mate Steve McManaman, 23, and with Middlesbrough's Nick Barmby, 21, making his first start, complementing Shearer up front. Tony Adams takes over the captaincy from injured Arsenal colleague David Platt, and Rangers' Paul Gascoigne is deemed fit to start. Jack Charlton uncharacteristically also gambles on youth, giving Liverpool reserve winger Mark Kennedy, 19, his international début.
6 The sensation of an international night is not any of the results or goals, but an extraordinary stunt by Colombia's keeper Rene Higuita in their goalless draw at Wembley, when instead of catching an easy ball on his goal-line he makes a gymnastic clearance with his heels from behind his head – his 'scorpion', as he calls it. In the more significant pursuit of qualifying for the Euro finals, Scotland virtually book their passage across the border in '96 with a 1-0 win over Finland at Hampden. Ireland, on the other hand, will now really struggle to qualify after their 3-1 defeat in Austria. Liverpool sign Bolton's Jason McAteer for £4.5m.
7 Bolton put their captain, central defender Alan Stubbs, on the transfer list.
8 Millwall escape punishment for the spanner-throwing incident at Reading last month when the home keeper was narrowly missed by a spanner thrown from the visitors' end, having identified and indefinitely banned the 15-year-old culprit from the New Den.
9 Newcastle lose the last 100% record in the League, going down 1-0 to Southampton at the Dell. Wimbledon beat Liverpool 1-0, a remarkable victory in that Vinnie Jones is sent off (Andy Thorn mistakenly goes, too, amidst great confusion and has to be recalled from the dressing-room!) for the 10th time in his career after 22min, with the score 0-0, yet they manage to defend Harford's 30th-minute goal to the end. A record 14 players are sent off in the four English divisions.
11 Man City sign Portsmouth striker Gerry Creaney in a deal that will exceed £1m when he fulfils certain appearance requirements and which sees Paul Walsh go in the opposite direction.
12 Tony Yeboah hits a superb hat-trick as Leeds win the first leg of their UEFA Cup 1st round tie 3-0 in Monaco, who have two players hurt trying to stop his third goal, the clash of heads between Basile Boli and sub keeper Marc Delaroche resulting in their being taken to hospital, Boli, in a bad way.
13 British sides make a poor start in the Champions League, Blackburn losing 1-0 at home to Spartak Moscow and Rangers, who have central defender Alan McLaren sent off together with an opponent, 1-0 away to Steaua Bucharest.
14 Both British Cup-Winners enjoy 3-2 victories in Europe, Everton at Reykjavik, where Anders Limpar is booked for taking a free-kick too quickly, and Celtic at Dinamo Batumi, in Georgia. Spurs chairman Alan Sugar, placing 'personal considerations to one side', lifts the White Hart Lane ban on England supremo Terry Venables. Harold Shepherdson, England's trainer during the 1966 World Cup, dies at 76.
15 Wimbledon's Vinnie Jones has his sending-off against Liverpool revoked, and changed to a booking, when linesman Ray Gould admits, after seeing video evidence, that there was no head contact and he advised the referee wrongly.

19 UEFA, meeting in Oporto, call on various committees to look into the English treatment of the Inter-Toto Cup and deal with the conduct of the clubs. UEFA president Lennart Johansson indicates he will stand for the FIFA presidency in 1998. A patently unfit Paul Gascoigne nevertheless marks his first Old Firm game by making the goal for McCoist that gives Rangers a 1-0 win at Parkhead and puts them into the semi-finals of the Coca-Cola Cup. Wimbledon lose a sensational see-saw tie 5-4 in the English counterpart at home to Div 1 Charlton, for whom teenager Lee Bowyer scores a fine hat-trick.

20 The long-awaited verdict of the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg is given in favour of Belgian star Jean-Marc Bosman's restraint-of-trade claim against his club FC Liège, the Belgian FA and UEFA, and promises far-reaching consequences, with a recommendation that a full tribunal rule the present transfer system illegal – players would become free agents at the end of their contracts and could then sell themselves; the restriction on foreign players would also disappear. The initial Football League reaction is that 75% of the country's full-time players could be out of a job, and others fear that many clubs, particularly in the lower divisions, would lose a prime source of income and go out of business. All this cannot dim the sensational giant-killing feat of York, even by their traditions, who beat Man Utd 3-0 at Old Trafford in the 1st leg of their Coca-Cola Cup tie despite having a man sent off halfway through the second half. Dynamo Kiev are thrown out of the Champions' League for attempting to bribe a referee (nearly £20,000 and two mink coats are the alleged sweeteners), and are banned from European competition for the next two seasons. A cabal of half a dozen Div 1 chairmen meeting at Filbert Street to discuss the 'widening financial gulf' opening up with the Premiership decides to call a meeting of all Div 1 clubs, but incurs the wrath of some of those not involved in this 'clandestine' get-together.

23 Some spectacular scoring in the Premier League is headed by Liverpool's Robbie Fowler with 4 goals in their 5-2 defeat of Bolton, while an Alan Shearer hat-trick is a shot in the arm for ailing champions Blackburn, 5-1 victors over Coventry, and Tony Yeboah scores his second hat-trick in a fortnight for Leeds, including a contender for 'goal of the season', in their 4-2 win at Wimbledon. Dennis Bergkamp finally breaks his duck with 2 splendid goals in Arsenal's 4-2 defeat of Southampton, and Julian Dicks converts 2 penalties to give West Ham their first win of the season, 2-1 over Everton. 26 Four out of five British clubs go through to the UEFA Cup 2nd round, but the most dramatic episode occurs at Old Trafford, where an 89th-minute headed equalizer by keeper Peter Schmeichel fails to keep Man Utd in the competition and they go out on away goals, having conceded 2 early ones to Rotor Volgograd. Ironically, the successful four clubs score only 1 goal between them, a splendid second-half strike from Bryan Roy that enables Forest to beat Malmo on away goals. Referee Gary Willard admits he was wrong to dismiss Henning Berg at Liverpool and the Blackburn defender has his one-match ban rescinded. Sheff Wed manager David Pleat sounds off against agents, the 'scourge' of his profession, after the reported transfer request of Romanian defender Dan Petrescu.

The BBC sack George Graham from his job as football summarizer for Radio 5 Live.

2 With the failures of Everton and Celtic in the Cup-Winners Cup, Forest are now the only British club left in Europe. Scotland, who finish with a 5-0 win over San Marino, qualify in 2nd place. Meanwhile, England put a smile at last on Terry Venables' face with their encouraging 3-1 defeat of Switzerland in their Wembley friendly. Ryan Giggs scores in 16sec for Man Utd, who beat Southampton 4-1. Liverpool's progress is halted by Everton, whose 2-1 victory, in which Andrei Kanchelskis scores his first goals for the club, is their first at Anfield for 8 years. Future TV plans for English football are confirmed and include the extension of Sky's live coverage of England internationals to 2001, and they will also continue to show live FA Cup ties from every round as well as live replays, while ITV will broadcast live ties on Sundays. The overall deal agreed by Sky, ITV and the BBC leaves Sky with a significant balance of power, as they will now control the Premiership, the Endsleigh League, the Coca-Cola Cup and England's home internationals and enjoy considerable access to the FA Cup and most of Scottish football.

Wearing a pair of reading glasses borrowed from the judge, Terry Venables gives evidence in the case being brought for fees allegedly owed by his club Scribes West, and states that he believes claims made by businessman Jeff Fugler against him were linked to Spurs; council for Fugler infers that club chairman Alan Sugar was the 'likely candidate' as the alleged source of key documents.

14 Terry Venables loses his court battle and faces a bill for compensation (to the businessman Jeff Fugler suing him) and legal costs totalling an estimated £160,000, and is scathingly criticized by the judge for his evidence. The England coach, not in court to hear the judgement, faces further actions from Fugler's brother and Spurs chairman Alan Sugar, and in turn is counter-suing Fugler and Sugar. Blackburn complete the signing of Palace defender Chris Coleman for £2.8m.

15 As a sequel to the Bosman case, the European Court of Justice rule that clubs have no right to buy and sell players as commodities at the expiry of their contracts, throwing the multi-million-pound transfer market into confusion; the ruling relates to transfers of players between clubs of different EU countries, but there seems little doubt in some quarters that it will affect domestic transfers, too, while others are confident transfers between clubs of the same country will be unaffected – total confusion.

16 Yugoslav striker Savo Milosevic breaks his home duck with a second-half hat-trick as Villa enjoy a 4-1 victory over Coventry, who once again cede numerical advantage to their opponents, this time when former Villa captain Kevin Richardson walks with two yellow cards. But the performance of the day belongs to Sheff Wed, for their fluent, impressive 6-2 demolition of Leeds, who suffer their heaviest defeat of Howard Wilkinson's tenure. Blackburn's Graeme Le Saux breaks a leg in the game against Middlesbrough and looks like missing most of England's preparation for the Euro finals.

17 The Euro 96 draw takes place in Birmingham, with England and Scotland drawn together in a group with Holland and Switzerland. Norwich manager Martin O'Neill resigns. UEFA clarify the new transfer rulings as affecting only EU nationals no longer under contract with their clubs and transferred between EU countries, in which case no fee is applicable – simple! Newcastle striker Malcolm Allen, a Welsh international, who made only 10 League appearances for them, in 1993, loses his battle against a severe knee problem and is forced to retire at 28.

18 In an effort to halt the decline of English clubs' performances in European competition, the FA plan to allow them more time to prepare for their ties, at least 4 clear days without a domestic fixture, and to allow them to opt out of the Coca-Cola Cup until the 3rd round. Manager Terry Westley leaves Div 1 bottom club Luton after only 5 months by mutual consent.

19 The EU Executive Commission rule that UEFA must scrap their limit on foreigners in matches between clubs of different EU states. The Swiss Football Federation decide that Inter manager Roy Hodgson cannot manage their national side part-time and replace him with Portugal's Artur Jorge.

20 Both of tonight's Coca-Cola Cup replays result in wins for Div 1 sides over Premiership opponents, 6ft 7in striker Kevin Francis scoring both Birmingham goals as they beat Middlesbrough 2-0, and Norwich beating Bolton 3-2 on penalties.

21 Jack Charlton, at 60, curtails growing speculation and announces his retirement as manager of Ireland after nearly 10 years and 93 international matches – the finest period in the country's footballing history – and receives accolades from far and wide. Three new managers are appointed to Div 1 clubs, Martin O'Neill to Leicester, Lennie Lawrence to Luton and, provided compensation can be agreed with Bradford where he has been assistant, former caretaker manager Gary Megson to Norwich in place of O'Neill. An FA Premier League Board decide that Liverpool's Stan Collymore is not entitled to a 5% share of his £8.5m transfer fee from Forest because the club had not instigated the move, but he will receive £150,000, the outstanding instalments of his signing-on fee agreed when he joined Forest. Bolton sign Welsh international Nathan Blake from Sheff Utd in a £1.2m deal that includes the transfer of Mark Patterson to the Yorkshire club.

22 Mark McGhee makes his first signing for Wolves, midfielder Simon Osborn from QPR for £1m. Norwich pre-empt legal action over their appointment of Gary Megson as manager by agreeing compensation with Bradford.

23 England midfielder Robert Lee hits 2 as Newcastle beat Forest 3-1, their 10th win on the trot to take a 10pt lead in the Premiership. Player-manager Bryan Robson, making his first start of the season because of injury problems, links up in midfield with the brilliant Juninho and Middlesbrough beat West Ham 4-2.

26 Frost exposes the absence of undersoil heating at Premier clubs Villa and West Ham, whose fixtures are postponed. Wimbledon's 2-1 win at Stamford Bridge, their first victory in 15 matches, is marred by Vinnie Jones's dismissal for two bookable offences, the second, on Ruud Gullit, for a rash tackle from behind that upends the Dutchman, who is then accused of 'diving'! Only two games take place in Scotland. Rangers' impending signing of Brazilian star Jardel has been delayed by work-permit problems. With non-Europeans eligible for the first time, Milan's £6m Liberian striker George Weah wins the European Player of the Year award in Paris.

27 Man Utd close the gap on Newcastle to 7pts with a passionate 2-0 victory over their rivals at Old Trafford, where stand-in captain Eric Cantona outshines fellow-Frenchman David Ginola.

28 Vinnie Jones is charged by the FA with bringing the game into disrepute over remarks made about Ruud Gullit and other foreign players in a national newspaper. Liverpool offer free transfers to Jan Molby, Mark Walters and Paul Stewart. West Ham agree terms with Croatian central defender Slaven Bilic, who will join them for £1.3m from Bundesliga club Karlsruhe as soon as a work permit is granted.

29 The 72 Football League clubs meet in London and, although the threatened breakaway of the Div 1 clubs to form their own league does not materialize, the rebellion still smoulders, with all 24 clubs having signed resignation letters and lodging them together. Owing to frost again, 27 of tomorrow's League matches have already been cancelled.

30 Spurs lose the last unbeaten away record in the Premier League, defeated 2-1 at Blackburn, where Alan Shearer becomes the first player to score 100 Premiership goals. Again, Rangers' is the only Premier Division match to survive in Scotland, one of only 3 matches played. They take full advantage to increase their lead over Celtic to 8pts with a thumping 7-0 thrashing of 3rd-placed Hibs at Ibrox, Gordon Durie getting 4. Paul Gascoigne is booked for showing referee Dougie Smith the yellow card – a humourless action on the official's part after the English clown, finding the card on the grass after missing a sitter, shows it to himself for his carelessness and is unable to resist brandishing it at the ref before returning it. The FA charge three Middlesbrough players – manager Bryan Robson, captain Nigel Pearson and defender Neil Cox – with bringing the game into disrepute, after referee Paul Danson informs them of a confrontation outside the dressing-rooms at Ewood Park on 17 Dec following controversial decisions in their match against Blackburn.

31 The Div 1 chairmen decide against resigning from the Football League, although 21 of the 24 clubs abstain from voting on the proposed Sky TV deal. FIFA president João Havelange, still taking it upon himself to make unilateral decisions, promises the 2006 World Cup to Africa, with South Africa favourites to host the tournament. African Nations Cup holders Nigeria have withdrawn from next month's competition in S.Africa because of fears for their players' safety, a consequence of the infamous execution in Nigeria last month of minority-rights activists. Former Millwall stalwart defender Harry Cripps dies of a heart attack at 54.

January 1996

Bolton sack McFarland ... Havelange branded a dictator ... Venables to stand down from England job ... Rangers record for McCoist ... Magpies open 12pt gap, sign Asprilla for £7.5m

1 Spurs dent Man United's title hopes with a 4-1 win at White Hart Lane, United's biggest League defeat for 4 years, leaving them still 4pts behind Newcastle who now have two games in hand. Liverpool stay in the race, 3pts behind United with a game in hand, coming from 2-0 down to beat Forest 4-2, thanks largely to a Boy's Own performance by Collymore after he is taunted by the visiting fans.

2 Newcastle beat Arsenal 2-0 to restore their 7pt Premiership lead. Bolton, floundering 8pts adrift at the bottom of the Premiership, sack manager Roy McFarland, leaving partner Colin Todd in sole charge. FIFA sec Sepp Blatter reveals plans to enlarge the goals.

3 FA chairman Sir Bert Millichip, 81, signals his decision to retire after Euro 96, while UEFA boss Lennart Johansson brands FIFA supremo João Havelange a dictator. Rangers draw 0-0 at Celtic to maintain their 8pt lead in the Scottish Premier.

4 Man City ane, 27, is forced to give up his 5-year 14-op battle against knee injuries. Ian Porterfield joins Bolton to work as coach alongside Colin Todd.

5 Spartak Moscow internationals Sergei Yuran and Vasili Kulkov join 1st Div Millwall on loan until the end of the season.

6 The 3rd round of the Cup provides shocks but no upsets as Eric Cantona saves Man United's blushes at Old Trafford with an 80th-min equaliser against 1st Div Sunderland, Arsenal are held at Highbury by Sheff Utd, 2nd from bottom of Div 1, Pearce scores a late equaliser for Forest at Stoke, and Spurs are held 1-1 at Hereford, who miss a penalty. Sheff Wed go down 2-0 to Div 1 high-flyers Charlton. Top-scorers are Liverpool, a Collymore treble and Rush's record 42nd Cup goal helping them to 7-0 victory over Rochdale, and 1st Div Grimsby, 7-1 conquerors of bottom club Luton. In Scotland, Rangers stay 8pts clear with a 4-0 win at Falkirk.

7 Drama in the Sunday Cup-ties, as Stockport hold Everton at Goodison, Les Ferdinand punishes a ghastly keeping error by Chelsea's Dmitri Kharine at Stamford Bridge to earn Newcastle a replay, and Leeds come back from 2-0 at Derby to win 4-2 with two goals in the last minute. The Football League veto Birmingham's plan to buy a top Irish club.

8 Milan striker George Weah (170pts) is voted FIFA World Player of the Year, over club-mate Paolo Maldini (80) and Klinsmann (58).

9 The FA cite Orient defender Roger Stanislaus for failing a random drug test after a match at Barnet last November; he is the first player in England to test positive for a performance-enhancing drug (cocaine).

10 England's coach Terry Venables is to stand down after Euro 96 because the volume of litigation he is involved in will, he believes, hamper England's World Cup qualifying campaign. In Coca-Cola quarter-finals, Ian Wright's double gives Arsenal a 2-0 win over Newcastle at Highbury, where David Ginola's controversial dismissal leads to a dug-out clash, and Leeds come back from a goal down to beat Reading 2-1.

11 Newcastle boss Kevin Keegan rules himself out for the England job, while 'Boro's Bryan Robson feels he hasn't sufficient experience. Talks in Brussels between the Premier League and the European Commission fail to throw any further light on how the Bosman ruling affects the English transfer system. Arsenal manager Bruce Rioch and Newcastle assistant Terry McDermott will escape with a warning for last night's verbal confrontation.

12 UEFA slap a 1-year European ban on Spurs and Wimbledon for fielding weakened clubs in last summer's despised Inter-Toto Cup, but the clubs' appeal will be strongly backed by the FA and Premier League. Two more managers' Gerry Francis (Spurs) and Glenn Hoddle (Chelsea), rule themselves out of the England job, and QPR's Ray Wilkins expresses self-doubts. Man Utd are found guilty of poaching 16-year-old Matthew Wicks from Arsenal, but escape a fine because the son of former Chelsea defender Steve has indicated his willingness to join the Gunners as a trainee.

13 Man Utd, held 0-0 at home by Villa, slip up in the title chase and now find Spurs a point behind them. Lee Chapman, secured earlier this week on a month's loan from Ipswich, is sent off after 26min of his return to the Premiership at Elland Road, but a Brolin brace gives Leeds victory over West Ham. Alan Knight makes his 601st appearance for Portsmouth, a new League record for a keeper for one club, overtaking Peter Bonetti (Chelsea). Steve White scores 4 in Hereford's Div 3 5-2 defeat of Cambridge. In Scotland, Rangers beat Raith 4-0 to go 7pts clear and Ally McCoist's opener, his 231st League goal for the club, takes him past the previous Rangers record set by Bob McPhail between the wars. A turn-up in Div 3 sees Albion, 5pts adrift at the bottom, win 1-0 at 5pt leaders Livingston.

14 A Steve Watson strike at Coventry stretches Newcastle's Premiership lead to 9pts with still a game in hand over Man U. Celtic's 2-1 win at Aberdeen keeps them in the title race, 5pts behind Rangers with a game in hand. European champions Ajax suffer their first League defeat in 52 games since May 1994.

15 The Scottish FA decide to allow TV evidence in disciplinary cases from next season.

16 In 3rd round Cup replays, Man Utd again come back against 1st Div Sunderland to win 2-1, thanks to a Scholes 70th-minute equaliser and a last gasp winner from the much-criticised Cole, but League champions Blackburn go down at home to Div 1 Ipswich, Paul Mason scoring the only goal 5min from the end of extra time. The Premiership clubs vote to decline an invitation to take part in the next Inter-Toto Cup.

17 There's high drama at St James' Park, with penalties for both sides, the dismissal of Newcastle's Darren Peacock after an hour, and a late Gullit equaliser for Chelsea, who proceed to win 4-2 on penalties and go through to the 4th round. Sheff Utd knock Arsenal out 1-0, but the top clubs survive in the other replays, Everton hair-raisingly 3-2 at Stockport, Man City and Spurs smoothly by 5-0 (Sheringham 3) and 5-1 respectively over Leicester and Hereford, while Wimbledon sub Andy Clarke scores the winner over Watford within 3min of coming on to give Wimbledon their first home victory for more than 4 months. West Ham sign Spurs' World Cup star Ilie Dumitrescu for £1.5m. Celtic reverse a half-time deficit to win 2-1 away for the second time this week, beating Hearts to move within 2pts of Rangers.

18 Tottenham Hotspur plc announce record £7.14m pre-tax profits for the half-year ending 30 Nov, and agree a £1.5m deal with Sheff Wed for Andy Sinton.

19 Man City sign Nigel Clough from Liverpool for £1.5m.

20 Newcastle open up a 12pt Premiership lead over Liverpool and non-playing Man Utd, although their 2-1 win over bottom club Bolton, making it 12 out of 12 at home, is less than convincing. Scottish leaders Rangers, however, crash 3-0 at Ibrox, where Hearts midfielder Alan Johnston is the first visiting player to score a League hat-trick against Rangers since Man Utd boss Alex Ferguson for St Johnstone in Dec 1963! But Celtic fail to take full advantage, drawing 0-0 at Kilmarnock, and are now a point behind. Kenny Dalglish, having already upset some of the Irish interviewing board by saying they don't need to interview him, intimates that he's up for the England job, too.

22 An early Cantona strike is enough for a win at West Ham to keep Man Utd in the title hunt, despite Nicky Butt's sending-off 15min from time.

24 Newcastle provisionally sign Colombian striker Faustino Asprilla from Parma for £7.5m and will pay him £26,000 a week. Mark Hughes is suspended for 5 matches, 2 for reaching 33pts and 3 for his dismissal at Everton 10 days ago, as referee Robbie Hart declined to alter his decision after studying a video provided by Chelsea. Leeds on-loan striker Lee Chapman also loses his appeal against a 3-match ban, and Stan Collymore loses his appeal claiming a £425,000 pay-off from his record transfer from Forest to Liverpool.

26 UEFA overturn the Euro ban on Spurs and Wimbledon, thanks to a high-powered appeal team from the FA, the Premier League and the clubs. The FA plump for a short Far East tour to complete England's preparation for Euro 96 so as to avoid possible trouble with travelling fans.
27 Siberian temperatures producing snow and ice restrict the first-class programme to 3 FA Cup 4th-round ties, 1 Endsleigh League game, 5 Tennents Scottish Cup matches and a solitary Scottish League match, as a total of 55 games in England and Scotland are called off. In the Cup, Man Utd win 3-0 at Reading, but Spurs are held at home to Wolves and Everton at home again to a lower-division side, Port Vale. Rangers make up for the lack of matches in Scotland with a 10-1 win at Pittodrie over Highland League club Keith.
29 A Gullit-inspired Chelsea win their 4th round Cup tie 2-1 at QPR, who miss a penalty. Middlesbrough boss and England assistant coach Bryan Robson, still a contender to take over from Venables, is fined £750 by the FA for bringing the game into disrepute following incidents in the Blackburn tunnel last month. Man Utd are convicted for the second time in a month and fined £20,000 for making an illegal approach to 17-y-o schoolboy David Brown when on Oldham's books.
31 Liverpool's 2-0 win at Villa takes them 2nd in the Premiership, 9pts behind Newcastle and ahead of Man Utd on goal difference.

February
Player booked for crossing himself ... Bob Paisley dies ... Port Vale put Cup-holders out ... Man United win 6-0 at Bolton

1 Orient's Roger Stanislaus, 27, is banned for 1 year for drug abuse, the longest FA suspension for 30 years. Everton striker Duncan Ferguson has the remaining 7 matches of his suspension quashed after a Scottish judge rules the Scottish FA acted beyond their powers.
2 The FA find Birmingham guilty of two spectator-related misconduct charges at their November game with Millwall and order them to play one game behind closed doors if there is further trouble this year.
3 Newcastle beat Sheff Wed 2-0 to stay 9pts clear of Man Utd, 4-2 winners over Wimbledon at Selhurst Park, where Cantona exorcises some of last year's public shame with two important goals. Liverpool, held at home by Spurs, fall behind in the title race. Paul Gascoigne scores both Rangers goals in the 2-1 win at Partick that keeps them a point ahead of Celtic, who beat Hibs 2-1. There are curious incidents at both matches: Partick's scorer Rod McDonald is booked for crossing himself at the half-time whistle, and sent off after the interval for a second yellow card. Gascoigne is booked for celebrating one of his goals, while at Celtic Park ref Archie Roy stops the match when Hibs start to play without a keeper. He had refused injured Jim Leighton permission to return but did not notice stand-in keeper Darren Jackson (scorer of Hibs' goal) going back to his outfield position. He explains it is against the rules to play without a keeper. S.African president Nelson Mandela enjoys another emotional triumph in Johannesburg, after last year's Rugby World Cup, as the national side beat Tunisia 2-0 in the final of the African Nations Cup; both goals are scored within a minute by Mark Williams of Wolves, soon after coming on as sub for Leeds' Phil Masinga.
4 Finally the smoke is white and Millwall manager Mick McCarthy is the new Ireland supremo. Gavin Peacock scores 3 as Chelsea rout Middlesbrough 5-0 at the Bridge. Former West Ham winger Alan Sealey dies of a heart attack at 53.
6 The government is heavily defeated in a Lords debate on TV sporting rights, a victory for the campaign to keep 8 "listed" events on BBC and ITV, including the FA and Scottish Cups and the World Cup. Disgraced Orient player Roger Stanislaus, just starting a year's suspension for testing positive for cocaine, is dismissed by the club, who feel the ban is too lenient.
7 A UEFA summit in Geneva, with delegates from 33 leading European clubs, including Arsenal, Liverpool and Man Utd from England, recommends an expansion of European club competition that would see England and 7 other countries entering 2 clubs in the Champions and Cup-Winners cups and as many as 6 in the UEFA Cup, starting next season or certainly by 1997-98. To add to fixture congestion, 5 of the 6 rescheduled 4th round Cup ties are drawn, most commendably by Crewe, Grimsby and Oxford away to Premiership sides, and there are 3 postponements. Charlton get a late winner over Brentford, and in a replay Spurs win 2-0 at Wolves. None of the 5th round ties is yet known. Swansea's chairman-in-waiting Michael Thompson appoints Kevin Cullis, youth manager of non-League Cradley Town, as their new manager.
8 Raith manager Jimmy Nicholl is snapped up for the vacant Millwall post, while Dave Bassett takes over at Palace for the second time. The DoE refuse to sanction the Dumitrescu and Hottiger transfers as they have not played in 75% of Spurs' and Newcastle's games - a decision West Ham intend to fight.
9 Man Utd sign a new kit deal with Umbro said to be worth £60m over 10 years.
10 Man Utd beat Blackburn 1-0 but make no progress as leaders Newcastle, inspired by the unexpected début of their begloved Colombian sub Asprilla, score an important 2-1 win at Middlesbrough with two late strikes; it is Boro's 7th Premiership defeat on the trot. Arsenal's Dennis Bergkamp ends Forest's unbeaten 26-match sequence at home with the only goal of the game. In Scotland, Celtic, held 0-0 at lowly Falkirk, lose ground on Rangers who scrape past bottom club Motherwell 3-2 thanks to a late McCoist penalty given for a foul on Gascoigne, who receives his 9th booking of the season presumably for a matter arising out of the incident. The Premier League programme is unaffected by the weather, but 3 out of 5 fixtures in the other divisions are postponed.
11 Leeds come back to take a 2-1 lead at Birmingham in the 1st leg of their Coca-Cola Cup semi, marred by missiles thrown at visiting captain Gary McAllister from the crowd. Liverpool keep their faint Premiership hopes alive with a 2-1 victory at QPR. Former England and Stoke stopper Neil Franklin dies at 74.
12 Thanks to representation from the FA, England manager Terry Venables has gained more time to prepare for the first of his upcoming legal battles, the DTI's case to bar him from acting as a company director being adjourned until 15 July. Burnley sack manager Jimmy Mullen after 5 years.
13 Two Premiership sides survive potentially awkward away replays, Forest winning 3-0 at Oxford thanks to 2 goals in the last 10min, and Southampton scraping through 3-2 at Crewe after leading 3-0 in 26min. Vinnie Jones escapes with a £2,000 penalty for a newspaper article criticising Chelsea's Gullit, his fifth FA fine in 5 years. Arsenal manager Bruce Rioch escapes with an FA warning about his touchline confrontation with Newcastle's Terry McDermott, whose own explanation was accepted. Grimsby's Ivano Bonetti misses tomorrow's Cup replay as it emerges there was a confrontation with player-manager Brian Laws following Saturday's defeat at Luton which resulted in the former Italian international sustaining a fractured cheek-bone.
14 The much-loved Liverpool hero Bob Paisley, arguably the most successful British manager of all time, dies in a nursing home at the age of 77. Shocks for Premiership sides in 4th round Cup replays, as Grimsby thrash West Ham 3-0 and holders Everton are beaten and outplayed 2-1 at Port Vale, while Leeds win their rescheduled tie at Bolton 1-0. Dennis Bergkamp puts Arsenal 2-0 ahead in 32min of their Coca-Cola 1st leg semi at Highbury, but Dwight Yorke's double puts Villa level for the return. The inexperienced Kevin Cullis leaves the Swansea job after just 7 days, and Jimmy Rimmer is appointed for his second stint as caretaker. Norwich manager Gary Megson is fined £1,000 on a disrepute charge relating to an incident at Derby on New Year's Day.
15 Huddersfield striker Craig Whitington is charged by the FA with misconduct and suspended by his club after testing positive for cannabis for the second time in a year, the latest a target test in a programme of clinical assessment.
16 The FA announce plans to double their drug-testing programme. Shropshire businessman Michael Thompson pulls out of his proposed takeover of Swansea after the fiasco of his managerial choice, and former chairman Doug Sharpe resumes control. FA of Ireland chief executive Sean Connolly is called to a meeting by the association's officers and leaves having resigned.
17 No shocks in the three Endsleigh v Premier 5th-round Cup ties played, but Wimbledon need an Ekoku double, one in the last minute, to earn a replay after going 2-0 down at Huddersfield and Southampton also get a late equaliser at Div 2 leaders Swindon, while Villa are comfortable 3-1 winners at Ipswich. In the Premiership, bottom club Bolton record their first away success of the season, slamming Middlesbrough 4-1, their 8th consecutive League defeat. In the lower echelons, Bury hit 7, Peterborough 6. The only surprise in the Scottish Cup is Div 3 Caledonian Thistle's 1-0 victory at Div 2 Stenhousemuir, winning them the right to entertain Rangers in the 5th round.
18 Man City make a fight of their 5th round Cup tie at Old Trafford, taking an early lead through Rosler, but Man Utd ride their luck as Cantona converts a disputed penalty and Sharpe scores a late winner. In a 4th-round tie, Liverpool cruise through 4-0 at Shrewsbury.
19 Forest's 5th-round home Cup tie with Spurs is abandoned after 15min when a blizzard hits the City Ground. Ian Branfoot becomes general manager of Fulham, player-coach Micky Adams taking over team affairs. Grade One referee Jim McGilvray, 47, submits his resignation to the Scottish FA after 11 years, claiming FIFA edicts on the laws have turned referees into robots. UEFA bow to the European Commission's ruling and agree to bring an immediate end to restrictions on European Union "foreigners".
20 Coventry complete the transfers of Birmingham captain Liam Daish for £1.1m and Scottish international striker Eoin Jess from Aberdeen for £2m. Bottom Div 1 club Watford part company with manager Glenn Roeder 10 days after he signed a new 1-year contract.
21 Arsenal fail to break Villa down at Villa Park and a 0-0 draw after extra time puts Villa through on away goals to Wembley, where they will equal Liverpool's record of 7 League Cup final appearances; a pitch invasion at the end and pockets of brawling send shivers down the FA's spine as they entertain 150 foreign delegates in a Heathrow hotel for a Euro 96 workshop. In the FA Cup 5th round, Div 1 relegation-threatened Port Vale outplay another Premiership side, forcing Leeds to hold on for a 0-0 draw at Elland Road, the same score as in the other tie in which Chelsea are relieved stay alive at Grimsby. There is dramatic action in the Premiership, however, as Man Utd beat Everton 2-0 to move within 6pts of Newcastle, who lose 2-0 at West Ham but still have a game in hand. Former England manager Graham Taylor returns to Vicarage Road to take charge of struggling Watford.
22 Jan Molby, given a free transfer by Liverpool, is appointed Swansea player-manager, their 5th boss this season.
23 Blackburn agree to sell England midfielder David Batty to Premiership leaders Newcastle for £3.75m, taking Keegan's spending to £44m in 4 years, this latest buy, insurance against losing the Premiership race, completing his squad; Batty must serve a 2-match suspension. Villa sign England U-21 international Julian Joachim from Leicester for £1.5m. One of Millwall's on-loan Russians, Sergei Yuran, is arrested for failing to provide a breath test. Former West Germany coach Helmut Schön dies at 80.
24 Newcastle hit 3 equalisers at Maine Road, two from Albert and one from Asprilla, his first goal for the club, but a great match is spoilt by several clashes between Asprilla and City captain Keith Curle, especially an alleged head-butt by the tempestuous Colombian at the final whistle, and the FA will be studying video evidence. Newcastle now go 7pts clear of Man Utd with Liverpool, 3-2 winners at Blackburn, 2pts further back, the leading protagonists all having 11 games to play. Celtic's 4-0 defeat of Partick in the Scots Premier takes them level with gameless Rangers, who have a vastly better goal difference.

25 Man Utd sound a grim warning to Newcastle with an awesome 6-0 win at Bolton, their biggest away win since they beat Blackpool by the same score 36 years ago, and they are now only 4pts behind and on a roll. Leeds beat Birmingham 3-0 for a 5-1 aggregate victory in their Coca-Cola semi to reach Wembley for the first time in 23 years. Rangers regain their 3pt lead in Scotland with a 1-0 win at Aberdeen thanks to a Gascoigne penalty.
26 After studying video evidence, the FA charge both Asprilla and Curle with misconduct.
27 Leeds are through to the FA Cup 6th round thanks to a double from inspirational captain Gary McAllister, after Port Vale, who had dominated the game, had taken the lead.
28 Liverpool reach the last 8 of the Cup with a 2-1 win after Charlton put up a commendable show at Anfield, while Forest are held 2-2 at home by Spurs, Ian Woan topping and tailing Armstrong's double for Spurs with two brilliant free-kicks. Chelsea, Southampton and Wimbledon all have comfortable wins against lower-division teams in replays. Rangers sign Denmark striker Erik Bo Andersen from Aalborg for £1.5m.

March

Newcastle lose 100% home record to rivals ... Proper advantage law for next season ... Man U top Premiership ... Forest hammered 5-1 at home, out of Europe ... Villa win Coca-Cola Cup ... Cantona keeps scoring winners ... It's a Man U v Liverpool final

1 Arsenal and JVC renew their sponsorship for another 3 years, no financial details being disclosed. Leicester sign striker Steve Claridge from Birmingham for £1.2m.
2 Millwall's Sergei Yuran is in more trouble, sent off near the end of their home match with Wolves. Celtic's 4-0 win over Hearts puts them behind Rangers only on goal difference again, the two Glasgow giants standing 22pts above the rest.
3 Thanks to a loophole in the rules, David Batty is free to play for Newcastle in the crunch match against Man Utd tomorrow, having yesterday served half his two-match suspension with Blackburn, he cannot serve the rest with another club. Liverpool beat Villa 3-0, all scored in the first 8min, to keep themselves in the race, 2pts behind Man Utd. Rangers beat Hibs 2-0 at Easter Road where a spectator runs onto the pitch and attacks Rangers keeper Andy Goram.
4 Newcastle choose a bad time to lose their 100% 13-match home record, as a Cantona goal after 51min gives Man Utd a 1-0 win and takes them to within a point of the leaders but with a game fewer to play. Following last month's defeat in the Lords, the government climb down over listed TV sports and announce they will safeguard the BBC and ITV's right to show them. UEFA also climb down - over the new European Commission ruling - and promise that the transfer-fee system for end-of-contract players moving between EU countries will be scrapped.
5 Forest, the last British side in Europe, are beaten 2-1 in Germany by Bayern Munich, not a bad result in their UEFA Cup quarter-final 1st leg. Four out of five FA of Ireland honorary officers resign following allegations of financial mismanagement.
6 UEFA decide not to rush their plans for expanding the club competitions.
7 Adrian Heath is the new Burnley boss, only 10 weeks after leaving the playing staff to assist Howard Kendall at Sheff Utd. West Ham finally complete the Dumitrescu transfer from Spurs.
9 Forest beat Spurs on penalties, thanks to 3 Mark Crossley saves, after a 1-1 draw at White Hart Lane to reach the last 8 of the Cup, while Wimbledon hold Chelsea 2-2 in the quarter-finals. Ipswich provide a contender for comeback of the season with 3 goals in the last 6min to draw 3-3 at Barnsley in Div 1, while Sunderland end Derby's 21-match unbeaten run, their 3-0 win taking them to within 4pts of the leaders with 2 games in hand. Gascoigne scores another 2 in Rangers' 3-0 win at Caledonian to reach the Scottish Cup semis. FIFA, in the guise of the International Football Association Board, abandon the idea of enlarging the goals, but will continue to experiment with kick-ins instead of throw-ins. They finally empower the referee to play a true advantage law (awarding a free-kick if the offended-against side do not gain an advantage). And from next season linesmen will be known as "referee's assistants" (but not in this diary).
10 Leeds and Liverpool are goalless at Elland Road in their FA Cup 6th-round tie. Staring defeat in the face at Parkhead against Div 1 Dundee Utd in the Scottish Cup quarter-finals, Celtic produce goals in the 88th and 89th minutes to win 2-1. The FA of Ireland scandal continues as a vote of no confidence forces president Louis Kilcoyne to step down and officials who resigned last week are reinstated.
11 Cantona keeps Man Utd on course for another double with a goal and an assist as they beat Southampton 2-0 and become the first club to reach the FA Cup semis.
12 Legendary Arsenal goalscorer John Jensen goes back to Brondby on loan for the rest of the season.
13 Making his full début for Villa, Franz Carr scores the only goal of the game at the City Ground against his former club Forest to put Villa into the FA Cup semis and keep them on course for the Cup double. Liverpool suffer a severe blow to their Premiership ambitions, held 2-2 at Anfield by Wimbledon. Arsenal reject Ian Wright's transfer request. Sheff Wed agree a fee of £1.5m with Norwich for Jon Newsome, who began his career with them.
14 Wimbledon striker Mick Harford is charged with misconduct by the FA for his gesture to Chelsea fans at Saturday's Cup tie.
15 Beleaguered Norwich chairman Robert Chase sells another player to keep his bank manager happy, Ashley Ward going to Derby for £1m, and leaves manager Gary Megson fuming.
16 Man Utd go top of the Premiership for the first time since 23 Sep, but only just, as Cantona - again - grabs a last gasp equaliser against relegation-threatened QPR at Loftus Road to take them top on goal difference over Newcastle, who play Monday and have 2 games in hand. Liverpool's 2-0 defeat of Chelsea keeps them in the running, 2pts behind with no games in hand. Alan Shearer completes his 5th hat-trick of the season in injury time at White Hart Lane to give Blackburn a 3-2 win over Spurs. Bottom club Bolton's 2-0 win at Coventry is their third away victory in succession, after 12 defeats and a draw on the road. Backs-to-the-wall Norwich win 3-0 at Reading in Div 1 to ease their relegation fears.

17 A late header from centre-half John Hughes gives Celtic a 1-1 draw in the crunch match at Ibrox despite finishing with 10 men and keeps them within striking distance of Rangers. Sunderland knock Derby off the top of the Endsleigh Div 1 with a 2-0 win at Birmingham, their 7th win on the trot.
18 A convincing 3-0 win over West Ham puts Newcastle back on top of the Premiership by 3pts.
19 England's last hope, Nottm Forest, go crashing out of the UEFA Cup, hammered 5-1 at home by Bayern Munich, Klinsmann scoring 2. Bordeaux produce the shock of the quarter-finals, reversing a 2-0 deficit to beat AC Milan 3-2 on aggregate.
20 Twenty matches unbeaten now, Liverpool win their quarter-final Cup replay at Anfield 3-0 as Leeds succumb to a second-half battering, while Chelsea join them after beating Wimbledon 3-1 in a thriller at Selhurst Park with two late goals. Man Utd have Cantona to thank again for their 1-0 win over Arsenal at Old Trafford, but it is not quite enough to restore them to the top of the table, Newcastle just shading them now on goal difference. Georgian Mikhail Kavelashvili has been granted a work permit to play for Man City, who have agreed a fee of £1.4m with Spartak Vladikavkaz.
21 Blackburn sign Man City midfielder Garry Flitcroft for £3.5m.
23 Man Utd go back on top without playing, as Newcastle crash 2-0 at Arsenal, while Liverpool miss a great chance to make up ground, losing 1-0 to out-of-sorts Forest. Bolton rise off bottom spot for the first time in nearly 4 months, beating Sheff Wed 2-1 to go above QPR and kindle faint hopes of survival. Top v bottom in Scotland produces a shaky 3-2 win for Rangers over Falkirk, but they go 5pts ahead of Celtic, held to a 0-0 draw at Motherwell.
24 There's only one team in the Coca-Cola Cup final, Aston Villa, who cruise through 3-0 against Leeds, demonstrating why manager Brian Little was given a lucrative 2-year extension on his contract yesterday. A somewhat lucky win at Old Trafford over Spurs puts Man Utd 3pts ahead of Newcastle, thanks to yet another goal from Eric Cantona (his 5th in 5 games), although Newcastle striker Les Ferdinand is voted PFA Player of the Year.
25 Grimsby player-manager Brian Laws is charged with misconduct relating to the dressing-room incident 6 weeks ago in which a thrown plate left Ivano Bonetti with a broken jaw.
27 England's performance in beating Bulgaria 1-0 at Wembley in the first round of Euro 96 preparation friendlies is more impressive than their new grey change strip, while their winger Darren Anderton plays his first competitive game since September, a 45min outing with Spurs reserves. Scotland, with 7 first-choice players missing through injury, beat Australia 1-0 at Hampden, McCoist scoring. In Dublin, Roy Keane, having taken over the Ireland captaincy when Andy Townsend was injured, kicks out at Russia's Omar Tetradze and then throws the ball at him after being dismissed - this 15sec from the end of Ireland's 2-0 defeat.
28 The only seven-figure deals on transfer-deadline day are Kavelashvili's expected signing for Man City and Blackburn's £1m purchase of Grimsby full-back Gary Croft.
29 Chairman Ken Bates announces Chelsea's multi-million pound listing on the Alternative Investment Market and confirms that his former sparring partner Matthew Harding, whose total commitment has now increased to £26.5m, is to become vice-chairman. Another club to go public are WBA.
30 Most of Saturday's Premiership action is in the relegation zone, except for Everton's 3-0 win at Ewood Park, where £3m signing Garry Flitcroft is red-carded only 3min into his Blackburn début. In Scotland, Rangers, 2-1 down at Raith with 7min to go, finish up 4-2 winners as McCoist completes a hat-trick and Durie adds one more. With Celtic inactive, Rangers now lead the Premier League by 8pts.
31 Semi-finals day of the Cup leaves a mouth-watering final, Man Utd v Liverpool, United taking advantage of defensive errors after Gullit had put Chelsea in front, to win a thriller 2-1 at Villa Park; 45min later, Liverpool take on Villa at Old Trafford and beat them 3-0, a travesty of a scoreline for the combative Midlanders, the 2 goals from Robbie Fowler taking his tally to 5 in their 3 defeats of Villa in League and Cup this season.

April

Anfield epic: Liverpool 4 Newcastle 3 ... Rangers end Celtic 30-match run in semi-final ... Man U discard grey strip at half-time ... Shearer makes goalscoring history ... Sunderland and Derby promoted to Premiership ... Cantona Footballer of the Year ... Rush leaves Anfield ... Bolton and QPR down ... 8th title on trot for Rangers ... Gascoigne Scotland's Footballer of the Year ... Keegan upset by Ferguson

1 An impressive 5-0 victory over Aberdeen takes Celtic back to within 5pts of Rangers.
3 In an epic, see-saw encounter at Anfield, Stan Collymore scores a last-minute goal to give Liverpool a 4-3 victory over Newcastle, who, suffering their 4th defeat in 6 matches, now find themselves 3pts behind Man Utd, with an inferior goal difference and now only one game in hand, while Liverpool retain an outside chance, 5pts behind the leaders. Chelsea striker Mark Hughes, booked 11 times this season, escapes with a 2-match suspension for reaching 45pts.
4 Newcastle and England central defender Steve Howey, who limped off during last night's match at Anfield, looks like being out for the rest of the season, a blow to both club and country.
5 Newcastle manager Kevin Keegan is commended by FIFA for his sporting attitude to defeat and is invited to share his philosophy in a future FIFA seminar.
6 Man Utd win a spirited derby at Maine Road 3-2 and Newcastle snatch a 2-1 victory over QPR at St James' thanks to 2 goals from a back-in-form Peter Beardsley, but Liverpool appear to have blown their title chances with anticlimactic defeat 1-0 at Coventry. Hearts reach the final of the Scottish Cup, beating Aberdeen 2-1 at Hampden with a last-minute Alan Johnston strike, all the goals coming in the last 10min.

7 Rangers reach the Scottish Cup final with a 2-1 win at Hampden over Celtic, whose unbeaten 30-match domestic sequence comes to an end. Paul Ince, booked for applauding fans making racial taunts, scores his first goal in Italy's Serie A as his side Inter win 4-2 at Cremonese.

8 In a full Easter Monday Premiership programme, Man Utd put a 6pt barrier between themselves and Newcastle, thanks again to a Cantona goal as they make hard work of defeating Coventry at Old Trafford, while Newcastle have victory snatched from their grasp by former fan Graham Fenton, whose 2 goals in the last 5min gives Blackburn a 2-1 victory at Ewood Park.

10 Rangers lose their unbeaten away record, going down 2-0 at Hearts, but Celtic miss their chance at home to Kilmarnock, and only scrape a draw with a goal in the last 2min. Leeds chairman of 13 years Leslie Silver, 71, steps down from the board for health reasons.

11 The FA slap a 10-year ticket ban on Ireland manager Mick McCarthy for selling on two Cup final tickets last year which wound up on the black market.

12 Tranmere make John Aldridge player-manager, replacing John King, who has been offered a consultancy role. Huddersfield sack striker Craig Whitington, banned this week by the FA until November after twice testing positive for drugs.

13 Man Utd are stunned at The Dell, where they change their despised grey away strip when 3-0 down at half-time but still lose 3-1 to Southampton, who keep themselves just out of the relegation places. Coventry's 1-0 defeat of QPR virtually condemns the London side to the drop, but Man City's win keeps Coventry below the dreaded line. Mark Hughes scores 3 in Chelsea's 4-1 defeat of hapless Leeds, while Blackburn's 5-1 victory at Forest gives them a 12-1 aggregate over their two matches this season. In Scotland, recent signing from Aalborg Erik Bo Andersen hits 3 as Rangers beat Partick 5-0.

14 Thanks to a Ferdinand strike, Newcastle beat Villa 1-0 and take advantage of Man United's slip-up yesterday, moving 3pts behind with a game in hand. In Scotland, Celtic once more come back from behind to win 2-1, both goals by Van Hooijdonk.

17 It's tight at the top, both Man Utd and Newcastle scraping 1-0 home wins, Man U against Leeds, who have keeper Mark Beeney sent off early on, and the Magpies against Southampton. Alan Shearer makes history with the first of his 2 goals in Blackburn's 3-2 defeat of Wimbledon, becoming the first man to reach 30 goals in the top division in three consecutive seasons since Jimmy Dunne (Sheff Utd) in the 1930s, but tomorrow morning he has a groin op scheduled to get him fit in time for Euro 96. Duncan Ferguson, however, Scotland's chief striker, will miss Euro 96, withdrawn by Everton from the international squad because of a nagging groin injury.

20 On a rest weekend for the Premiership (midweek international), Endsleigh clubs who take the limelight are Sunderland, who win promotion to the top echelon despite not playing (manager Peter Reid is at Darlington and unaware of his triumph), and Swindon, whose draw at 2nd-placed Blackpool is enough to take them to Div 1 (manager Steve McMahon celebrates on the pitch with his team, but an altercation with Blackpool boss Sam Allardyce puts a dampener on the proceedings). There's no change at the top in Scotland as Rangers win 3-1 at Motherwell and Celtic beat Falkirk 4-0 to condemn them to the drop.

21 Eric Cantona's redemption is complete as he is voted Footballer of the Year by the Football Writers' Association, ahead of Ruud Gullit and Robbie Fowler.

23 Watford keep their faint hopes of Div 1 survival alive with a 6-3 win over Grimsby, David Connolly and Craig Ramage sharing the goals. Swindon clinch the Div 2 title with a 3-1 win at Chesterfield, but Brighton's 2-1 defeat at Notts Cty means 3rd Div football for them for the first time in 31 years.

24 England create chances but are held to a 0-0 draw in the Wembley friendly with Croatia. The other home countries and Ireland all lose friendlies, Scotland going down 2-0 in Denmark to goals by Michael Laudrup and his brother, Rangers star Brian.

25 The FA are concerned about the state of the Workers' Stadium pitch in Beijing and coach Terry Venables will fly there to inspect it. Bryan Robson signs a new contract with Middlesbrough that will keep him there until 1999, allaying fans' fears that he might take over the England job from Venables.

26 Galatasaray coach Graeme Souness is charged with ungentlemanly conduct by the Turkish FA for planting a club flag in the centre spot to celebrate Cup final victory over rivals Fenerbahce, and so allegedly inciting a riot.

27 The penultimate Saturday of the season sees Ian Rush wave a tearful goodbye to Anfield fans, as a second-half sub, and several issues settled. Bolton's 1-0 defeat at home to Southampton settles their fate, and QPR go down, too, despite beating West Ham. With Man City and Coventry both winning away as well as Southampton, Sheff Wed, who crash 5-2 at home to Everton (Kanchelskis 3), find themselves only 2pts ahead of the three relegation candidates with one game to play. Sunderland clinch the Div 1 title despite being held 0-0 at Roker Park by West Brom. Luton, beaten 3-1 at home by Barnsley, go down, but Watford's 2-1 win at Norwich earns them a stay of execution. There's trouble at Brighton, already relegated from Div 2, as fans riot and invade the pitch to demonstrate at the sale of the Goldstone Ground, and their match with York has to be abandoned after 15min at 0-0. Notts County's 4-0 defeat of Swansea consign's the Welsh club to Div 3. Preston and Gillingham clinch promotion from Div 3, the former as champions. In Scotland, Celtic's 4-2 win at Partick keeps their title hopes alive, at least until tomorrow.

28 Man Utd are almost there, a 5-0 victory over Forest in front of nearly 54,000 fans at Old Trafford leaves Newcastle trailing by 6pts and a 7-goal differential, with games running out. Over the border, Rangers clinch their 8th successive title with a 3-1 win over Aberdeen, and Paul Gascoigne crowns a brilliant first season in Glasgow with a hat-trick after being named Footballer of the Year by his fellow players. Derby beat Palace 2-1 to clinch the second automatic promotion place from Endsleigh's Div 1.

29 Newcastle win at Leeds, their third 1-0 victory on the trot, to stay in the title race. After the match, their manager Kevin Keegan makes some emotional comments on Sky TV criticising Alex Ferguson for his blatant gamesmanship in stirring up the Leeds side 12 days ago.

30 Newcastle's Asprilla, involved in incidents with Man City's Keith Curle (who is cleared) in February, receives a record £10,000 fine for misconduct, but his 1-match suspension will not take effect until next season. Gascoigne is honoured again, as the Scottish Football Writers' Association Player of the Year. Reading and Oldham win to secure their places in Div 1. York fail to clinch survival in Div 2, losing 1-0 at home to Chesterfield. Brighton will stay at the Goldstone Ground for another season, renting it from the developers.

Hoddle new England coach ... Man U pip Newcastle for title ... Arsenal win Europe place ... Man City down, Ball's big blunder ... Trevor Phillips resigns from FA ... Birmingham sack Barry Fry ... Peter Reid Manager of the Year ... Gullit new Chelsea boss, signs Vialli ... Man United first ever double Double ... Rangers' 13th Double, slam Hearts 5-1 in Cup final ... Juventus new European champions ... Leicester promoted ... England players accused of damage on flight home ... new Ireland skipper Keane loses captaincy before he starts ... Nationwide new Football League sponsors ... Japan and S. Korea to share 2002 World Cup

1 With the appointment of Glenn Hoddle as new England coach imminent, Chelsea big guns, Ken Bates and Matthew Harding, make a last-ditch effort to keep their manager, the former by persuasion, the latter by castigating the FA for "violating their own rules" with the stealth of their approach. Former Villa and England forward Eric Houghton dies at 85.

2 Hoddle accepts the England job: he will leave Chelsea after their last match on Sunday; his England contract begins on 1 June, but he will not take over from Venables until after Euro 96. The only consolation for Chelsea fans is Ruud Gullit's assertion that he will not leave. Newcastle's 1-1 draw at Forest leaves Man Utd needing only a draw at Middlesbrough on Sunday to clinch the title even if the Magpies win their last game. Darren Anderton's form after his 7-month absence bodes well for his England return, his 2 goals at Elland Road helping Spurs to 3-1 victory over Leeds, who suffer their 6th defeat on the trot, their worst losing sequence since 1947. Former Man City chairman Peter Swales dies of a heart attack at 62. Norwich chairman of 10 years, Robert Chase, resigns from the board and sells his share holding to club president and former chairman Geoffrey Watling, 83. Turkish Cup-winners Galatasaray sack manager Graeme Souness after a year for not winning the league. Matthew Simmons, 21-y-o Palace supporter, is found guilty of provoking the notorious attack by Eric Cantona at Selhurst Park last year and is fined £500 and banned from all football grounds for 12 months, and is jailed for a week for jumping a bench in court to attack a prosecuting solicitor before sentence could be pronounced!

4 Oxford make sure of promotion to Div 1 with a 4-0 win over Peterborough, leaving rivals Blackpool in the play-offs. Bradford clinch a play-off place with a 3-2 victory at bottom club Hull, where there are disturbances inside and outside the ground as well as a sit-in by disgruntled Hull fans. York, defeated 2-0 at home by Blackpool, find themselves in an intriguing if controversial position, the only fixture left in Div 2 being their rearranged match at Brighton: they know exactly what they have to do to leapfrog over Carlisle to safety. Gillingham ensure the 2nd promotion place in Div 3 with a 1-0 win over Scarborough, while Bury snatch the 3rd by beating Cardiff 3-0, and Darlington, held 3-3 at Scunthorpe, miss out on automatic promotion. Dunfermline clinch the only automatic promotion place from Scottish Div 1, leaving Dundee Utd to play off.

5 Man Utd make no mistake at Middlesbrough on the final day, a 3-0 victory, their 10th away from home, giving them the Premiership title. Newcastle finish 4pts behind after failing to win at St James' for only the second time this season (their first, defeat by Man Utd, turning out to make all the difference), and struggling to take the point from Spurs in a 1-1 draw. Arsenal, needing a win at Highbury over bottom club Bolton to clinch the last UEFA Cup place, go a goal down with 15min left, but goals by summer signings Platt and Bergkamp in the last 8min will help pay off their transfer fees. It's not all good news for Manchester, City going down to Div 1 after coming back from a 2-0 half-time deficit at Maine Road to draw with an uninterested Liverpool: Alan Ball's instructions late in the game to his side to keep possession, because he had "heard a rumour" that one of the other sides in trouble was losing, must go down as the blunder of the season, as both Coventry and Southampton achieve safety with 0-0 home draws. In Div 1, Portsmouth win 1-0 at Huddersfield to save themselves from relegation at the expense of Millwall, whose 0-0 draw at Ipswich also prevents the home side from reaching the play-offs as Leicester do by winning 1-0 at Watford, who now go down.

7 The FA's commercial director Trevor Phillips suddenly resigns, with no one willing to elucidate. Birmingham sack colourful manager Barry Fry. Sunderland's Peter Reid is named League Managers' Association Manager of the Year.

8 Terry Venables announces his squad for the upcoming friendly with Hungary from Beijing, where he appears to be overseeing the work of the national stadium's groundsman, and the good news is that Adams, Anderton and Shearer are all named and presumably close to fitness again. Paris St-Germain win the Cup-Winners Cup, beating Rapid Vienna 1-0 in Brussels, where some 400 fans attack police in the city's central square, about 60 being arrested.

9 It emerges that Trevor Phillips had his own ticket line for the European Championships, involving the possible legitimate distribution of 50,000 tickets, the existence of which was unknown to Euro '96, the FA unit responsible for running the tournament. It was this 'misunderstanding' within the FA that led to recent police raids on the National Sporting club and other agencies legitimately buying blocks of tickets for hospitality packages, and to some embarrassing arrests in this connection. QPR director Richard Thompson resigns, and the club is up for sale. York win their rescheduled match at Brighton to send Carlisle down to Div 3. Celtic midfielder Paul McStay needs an op and is out of Scotland's Euro 96 squad. Vauxhall Conference champions Stevenage issue a High Court writ against the Football League and Div 3 bottom club Torquay, a last-ditch attempt to win the promotion denied them because their ground did not measure up to requirements by the specified date.

10 Ruud Gullit takes over as player-coach at Chelsea, and Trevor Francis is confirmed as new manager at Birmingham. The transfer of Bolton defender-cum-midfielder Alan Stubbs to Celtic for £3.5m is being investigated by the FA and Scottish FA because his agents are allegedly not registered. Former FA commercial director Trevor Phillips denies he had authorised any companies to resell Euro 96 tickets other than Keith Prowse and Sportsworld, and insists that he told the three companies raided by the police to apply to the official ticket agents, Synchro Systems.

11 Man Utd beat Liverpool 1-0 in the Cup final to bring off an unprecedented double 'Double", and appropriately it's captain Cantona who scores the spectacular winner, although it's a disappointing game.

13 QPR midfielder Ian Holloway returns to Bristol Rovers as player-manager.

14 Bryan Robson signs his third Brazilian at Middlesbrough, 24-y-o midfielder Emerson, for £4m from Portuguese champions Porto.

15 Bayern Munich, with a 2-0 advantage from their home leg, win 3-1 at Bordeaux to take the UEFA Cup. In Endsleigh League play-off 2nd legs, Bradford make a remarkable recovery at Blackpool, winning 3-2 on aggregate after losing 2-0 at home.

16 Alex Ferguson signs a new 4-year contract to stay at Man Utd. Bruce Grobbelaar, 38, has been released by Southampton. In a written parliamentary answer, sports minister Iain Sproat states that over 100,000 Euro 96 tickets might have been improperly allocated. Dundee Utd earn promotion to the Scottish Premier with a goal by Owen Coyle in the 115th minute of their 2nd leg play-off with Premier club Partick, after a 90th-minute strike by Brian Welsh had forced extra time.

17 Liverpool win the FA Youth Cup, beating West Ham 2-1 in the 2nd leg of the final after their 2-0 victory at Upton Park.

18 With Gordon Durie notching the first hat-trick in a Scottish Cup final for 24 years - all by courtesy of Brian Laudrup - Rangers beat Hearts 5-1 to chalk up their 13th League and Cup double. England beat Hungary 3-0 in their friendly at Wembley, with 2 goals from comeback man Darren Anderton, but an injury to defender Mark Wright is another worry for Venables.

19 Llansantffraid-ym-Mechain (pop.954) will have a team in Europe next season after beating Barry Town 3-2 on penalties (3-3 aet) in the Welsh Cup final at Cardiff's National Stadium: they would have qualified anyway, as Barry are Welsh League champions.

20 With Mark Wright definitely out of Euro 96, Venables takes Newcastle's Steve Howey with England's squad to the Far East. Ian Rush, given a free transfer by Liverpool, joins Leeds.

21 Former England manager Bobby Robson, 63, released by Porto after steering them to League success for the last two seasons, takes over at Barcelona from Johan Cruyff, who is still engaged in a slanging match with club president Jose Luis Nuñez at the airport as Robson arrives.

22 Juventus beat holders Ajax 4-2 on penalties after a 1-1 draw in Rome to win the European Cup. Man Utd give captain Steve Bruce, 35, a free transfer to Birmingham, whom he will also skipper and earn around £1m in two years. Graeme Souness accepts substantial undisclosed damages from The Mail on Sunday newspaper in the High Court for allegations that he had taken bribes over transfers while manager of Liverpool.

23 Nick Barmby stakes his claim for a place in England's squad with 2 goals in their 3-0 win over China in Beijing, while the impressive Gascoigne scores the other. UEFA finally accept the Bosman ruling, scrapping all restrictions on foreign players in club competitions. S.African striker Phil Masinga, who played only 11 times for Leeds during the season, is refused a work permit and may have to leave the club. With Andy Townsend opting out of Ireland's American tour next month, manager Mike McCarthy has handed the captaincy to Roy Keane.

24 Juventus captain Gianluca Vialli, 31, who cost them £12m in 1992 but is now a free agent, is Ruud Gullit's first signing for Chelsea, at an estimated £1-1.4m a year on a 3-year contract.

25 West Ham agree a 2-year contract said to be worth £1m a year with AC Milan's former Portuguese international Paolo Futre, 30, who for injuries and other reasons played less than a full match for the Italian club during the season. A record 43,431 for a Div 3 play-off, some 30,000 from Devon, see Plymouth beat Darlington 1-0, both teams at Wembley for the first time, but not Argyle manager Neil Warnock, whose 4th trip, and 4th success, this was.

26 Pre-Euro 96 tour matches for the home countries prove far from confidence-boosters as an England XI's struggle to beat a Hong Kong XI 1-0 is matched by Scotland's first defeat in the USA, 2-1 at New Britain, Conn. Bradford beat Notts Cty 2-0 in the Div 2 play-off final at Wembley.

27 As England jet home from their Far East tour, the players know the names of the 5 not selected for Euro 96, but the media know only that Peter Beardsley, 35, is one of them. Leicester come from behind to win a dramatic Div 1 play-off at Wembley, beating Palace 2-1 with a goal from Steve Claridge in the last 2 seconds of extra time. Roy Keane goes missing two days before Ireland start a week of internationals.

28 The England squad hit the headlines for all the wrong reasons, as reports of vandalism inside the Cathay Pacific 747 taking them home begin to emerge. The unlucky last four to be left out of the squad are Robert Lee, Jason Wilcox, Ugo Ehiogu and Dennis Wise. Roy Keane is stripped of his newly won Ireland captaincy after going on holiday without telling manager Mick McCarthy, and is effectively banned from their next 6 internationals.

29 Allegations by Cathay Pacific that England players caused £5,000 worth of damage to their plane, including smashing two TV screens, have stirred MPs of all parties to demand stringent measures be taken. In home internationals, Ireland lose 1-0 to Portugal, but N.Ireland hold Germany 1-1 as Klinsmann misses a penalty. Blackpool sack manager Sam Allardyce and appoint Vicki Oyston chairman in place of her husband Owen, who is serving 6 years for rape.

30 The tabloids have a field day as it emerges that England's antics on the plane home were allegedly a continuation of a drinking party in Hong Kong to celebrate Paul Gascoigne's 29th birthday. Tales of drunkenness impute several players, and Gascoigne is depicted as lying back in a dentist's chair in a nightclub while a waiter poured tequila into his mouth. On the field, Newcastle's Asprilla gives Colombia a 1-0 victory over Scotland at Miami Beach. Nationwide take over sponsorship of the Football League from Endsleigh with a 3-year deal worth £5.25m.

31 At a FIFA meeting in Zurich, Japan and S.Korea agree to share the 2002 World Cup, after a humiliating climb-down by FIFA president João Havelange, whose patronage of the Japanese bid was of 'over my dead body' proportions. Celtic sign AC Milan winger Paulo Di Canio on a 4-year contract worth over £3m. Man Utd rescue non-League Bishop Auckland from ruin as a result of a £30,000 litigation award to an injured visiting player - thus repaying them for their generous loan of players in 1958 after the Munich air disaster.

June 96

England squad accept collective responsibility for Jumbo damage . . . Premier League agree £743m TV deal . . . Euro 96 opens

1 Terry Venables, in Switzerland to cast an eye on England's first Euro 96 opponents, who lose 2-1 to Czech Rep, promises swift action will be taken against any player found guilty of causing trouble on the flight back from Hong Kong, although he warns against making Gascoigne a scapegoat. France inflict Germany's first defeat in 13 matches, winning 1-0 in Stuttgart to take their own unbeaten run to 22.

2 Wales make an impressive start to their World Cup campaign with a 5-0 win in San Marino. Ireland hold Croatia 2-2 in a friendly at Lansdowne Road.

3 The England squad close ranks over the Cathay Pacific affair, no one admitting to causing any damage and all accepting collective responsibility. Former Arsenal centre-forward Cliff Holton, 67, dies while on holiday in Spain. Controversial compensation of £1.2m is awarded to 14 police officers for psychological trauma endured at the Hillsborough disaster in 1989.

4 Venables describes reports of players' misbehaviour on their flight home as "grossly exaggerated", although the collective responsibility aspect is already wearing thin as Liverpool's McManaman and Fowler have both taken steps to deny press reports naming them as culprits. Holland beat Ireland 3-1 in a friendly, while Germany warm up with 9 goals against Liechtenstein.

6 The Premier League agree a new 4-year contract with Sky for £670m plus £73m from the BBC for recorded highlights. UEFA issue a directive aimed at stamping out illegal tackles and time-wasting in Euro 96, and fine Spain and Italy for withdrawing teams from the Inter-Toto Cup. Div 1 champions Sunderland give manager Peter Reid a new 3-year contract.

8 Euro 96 opens in splendid festival atmosphere at Wembley, and Alan Shearer ends his international goal drought to give England the lead in their opening match, but a disputed penalty allows the Swiss to equalise as England fade in the second half.

9 Germany beat the Czech Republic 2-0 at Old Trafford, the only win in the 4 matches played so far.

10 Scotland earn a brave if lucky 0-0 draw with Holland at Villa Park. UEFA president Lennart Johansson backs the referees as a controversy flares at the flurry of red and yellow cards in the first 3 days of Euro 96.

11 Again, while training at Bisham Abbey, Venables has to defend his players against tabloid allegations of drinking at a nightclub after their draw with Switzerland, and there is further bad news when Steve Howey damages ankle ligaments on a training run and is out of the competition, another centre-half biting the dust for Venables. A Casiraghi double gets Italy off to a good start with a 2-1 victory over Russia at Anfield.

12 It's Venables' assistant Bryan Robson's turn to defend the England players against boozing allegations, criticising the tabloids for making mountains out of innocent molehills.

NORMAN BARRETT

LEAGUE REVIEW

Manchester United overhauled Newcastle in the race for the FA Carling Premiership, even though their north-east rivals held an apparently unassailable lead of 12 points over them in January.

Significantly, United completed the double over Newcastle, the second success on 4 March enabling them to establish a psychological advantage, which was only threatened by a bizarre first-half performance at Southampton. This was United's sole defeat among the last 16 games.

Newcastle faltered from February, picking up only four points out of a possible 18. This disastrous period ended in a 4-3 defeat at Liverpool, a match which was justifiably considered to be a contender for the game of the century.

A goal down in two minutes, Newcastle led 2-1 after 14, and edged ahead 3-2 in the second half just a couple of minutes after Liverpool's equalizer. Liverpool levelled again in the 68th minute and snatched a dramatic injury time winner to the chagrin of the visitors.

Ironically, any outside hopes Liverpool were entertaining of catching the top two evaporated three days later when they lost 1-0 at Coventry. There was not even the consolation of the FA Cup as they were beaten 1-0 by Manchester United in arguably one of the poorest finals on record.

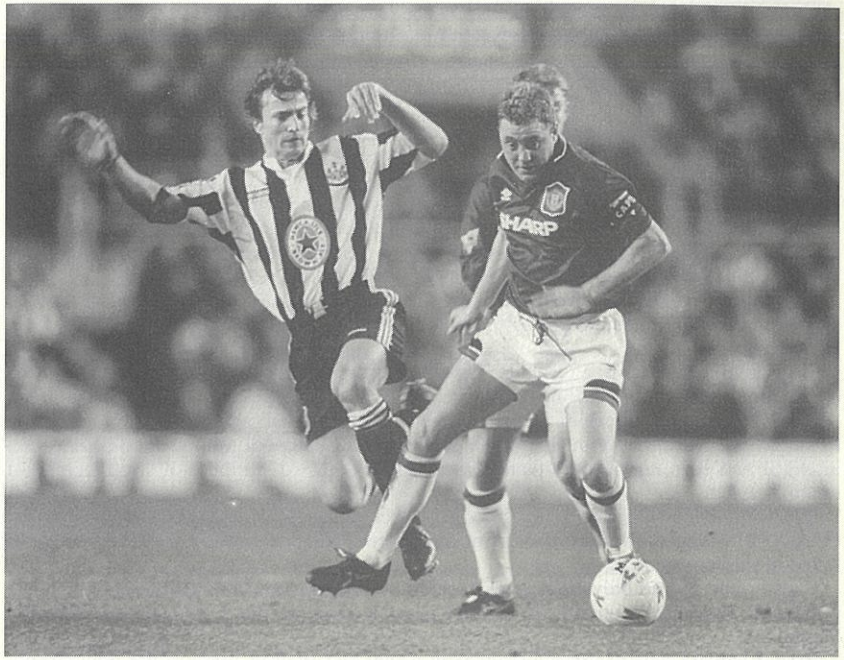

There was cup success for enterprising Aston Villa who beat Leeds 3-0 in the Coca-Cola Final and as comfortably as the scoreline suggested. Their season tailed off somewhat afterwards and their fourth place was almost eroded as Arsenal nearly caught them on the last day.

Arsenal still finished disappointingly having lost only one of their first ten matches but Everton showed marked improvement to finish sixth.

Blackburn, the champions, never recovered from a poor start and failed to make any impression in Europe. Alan Shearer did contribute his usual quota of thirty-plus goals, but even this was not enough. Tottenham reached as high as third place in January shortly after a convincing 4-1 win over Manchester United but were unable to sustain this effort and Nottingham Forest after establishing a Premier League record of 25 unbeaten matches, crashed 7-0 at Blackburn in the next match. However, they did reach further than any other English club in Europe during the season.

Manchester United players celebrate after winning the FA Carling Premiership title.

Steve Bruce (Manchester United) shrugs off a challenge from Newcastle United's David Ginola during the crucial match between the two title contestants in March. Manchester United won 1–0. (Colorsport).

West Ham's results did not always reflect their useful performances and like Chelsea often had problems in the scoring line.

Middlesbrough's run of five successive wins to October promised an exciting season, but the Christmas period saw them go 13 games without a win as injuries contributed to their slide down the table. Leeds started well enough but won only three League games in the second half of the season. Wimbledon's traditional ability to extricate themselves from danger was again in evidence.

A season lacking in sparkle for Sheffield Wednesday brought them into the relegation bracket on the last day of the season, but they escaped along with ever-surviving Coventry and Southampton. Earlier, the Saints had somehow contrived to beat both Manchester United and Newcastle. However, they and Coventry only finished above relegated Manchester City on the number of goals scored as the drama enfolded on the last day. Manchester City merely managed to score 33 all season.

Despite brief flurries from both Queens Park Rangers and Bolton, they too, found themselves relegated.

The last champions of the Endsleigh Insurance First Division proved to be Sunderland, who lost only one of their last 19 games and that when they had already secured promotion. They were joined in automatic promotion by Derby County who recovered from a poor start which had seen them as low as 17th in November. In the play-offs, Leicester emerged successfully after winning their last four League games. Crystal Palace were disappointed not to have clinched a place in the Premier League, but were edged into third place after losing their last two League games.

Stoke were another club who began badly though they did make the play-offs. But any hopes that Charlton had beyond that stage ended with only one win in the last nine. Ipswich were denied a play-off place by drawing goalless in the last game despite finishing the season as leading scorers.

Huddersfield, too, had a poor spell in March picking up only one point in five matches, but Sheffield United hauled themselves off the bottom in January with the arrival of new manager Howard Kendall. Barnsley tailed off after a promising first ten games and West Bromwich still finished in mid-table despite a mid-season run in which they took one point from 14 matches.

Port Vale, who had looked relegation contenders in March improved noticeably, but Tranmere – who were briefly top in August – were inconsistent. Southend were as high as fourth in February, but won only three more games and a run of eight matches without a win ruined Birmingham's hopes of the play-offs, as did a similar spell for Norwich.

Fourteen games without a win mid-season threatened to head Grimsby towards relegation and only a revival from April saved Oldham. Reading were late escapers themselves and Wolves had a see-saw season as high as 11th and as low as 22nd.

Portsmouth avoided the drop with a 1-0 win at Huddersfield on the last day of the season, but Millwall plunged alarmingly from being top in December to finishing third from bottom.

Watford did revive when Graham Taylor returned to the club, but it was too late and apart from leapfrogging neighbours Luton, the pair were relegated.

Swindon were never out of the second division top two all season, did not suffer two defeats in succession and fought off the challenge of Blackpool, who slipped disastrously in April and surrendered automatic promotion to Oxford, winners of six of their last seven matches.

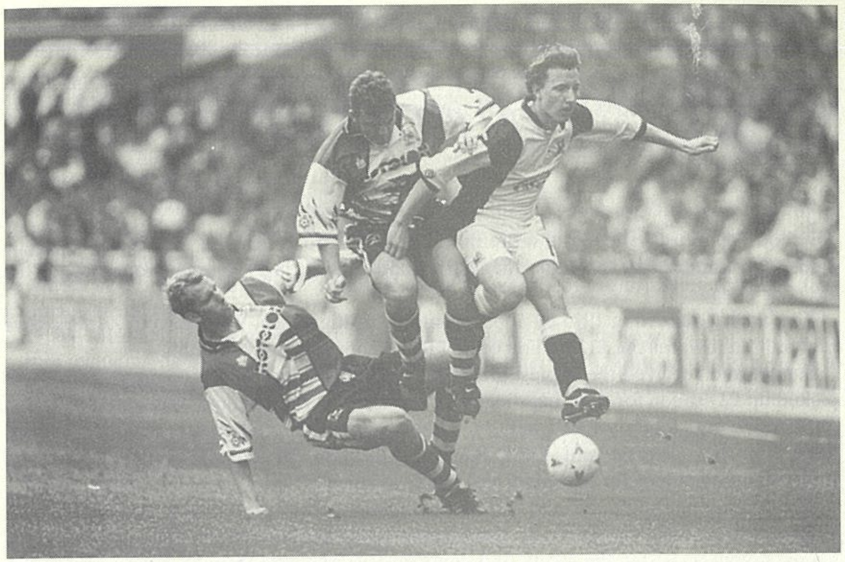

Bradford, who finished sixth, emerged successfully from the play-offs, yet Notts County, who appeared more consistent and Crewe, top for a spell in mid-season, both failed in similar attempts.

Chesterfield scored only eight goals in their last dozen games to miss the play-offs by a point and Wrexham's unimpressive start proved costly as did a mid-season slump by Stockport.

Bristol Rovers several times lost twice in a row and Walsall came to life only in mid-April. Wycombe looked a mid-table team for much of the second half of the season as did Bristol City and Bournemouth, who sufficiently improved after seven games without a win to mid-March.

Brentford also revealed a second-half improvement but Rotherham, the Auto Windscreens Shield winners, needed a better April to pull themselves out of trouble.

Burnley won only three of their last fifteen, Shrewsbury just two of their last 22 and Peterborough one of the last twelve.

York had to win at Brighton to avoid relegation, a result which sent Carlisle down after they had hovered in dire straits for most of the season. Swansea were rarely out of the bottom four after Christmas and were relegated with Brighton, second from the bottom most of that time and Hull, who appeared doomed since October.

In division three, Preston established themselves in first place by the end of March and Gillingham's defence, which conceded only 20 goals, helped considerably towards their promotion along with Bury, who looked a better outfit from late October.

They were joined from the play-offs by a Plymouth side who had lost their opening four games.

Darlington missed out from the play-offs despite remaining unbeaten in their last 11 outings as did Hereford with eight wins in their last ten and Colchester, who were as high as fourth in January.

Chester, top at the turn of the year, slipped back and Barnet's improvement was too late.

Wigan drifted out of it in April while Northampton were mid-table from the halfway stage and Scunthorpe's revival after nine games without a win, only took them to 12th.

Doncaster won only two of their last 11, Exeter rarely moved far from mid-table, but Rochdale performed really poorly in the second half of the season.

Cambridge had a spell of 11 games without a win, Fulham an earlier 14 and Lincoln one fewer from early August.

Mansfield drew 20 times and Hartlepool's victories were few and spaced out. Leyton Orient were still third in September but Cardiff won only one of their last 12, Scarborough one of their last sixteen.

Torquay were bottom from November, but were spared demotion by Stevenage not meeting the required ground criteria.

The FOOTBALL TRUST
Helping the game

The Football Trust handed out more than £11 million to 14 English and Scottish League clubs with Sunderland the top beneficiaries and they fittingly gained promotion to the Premier League.

The Trust, founded in 1975 by pools promoters Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters, gave £2.5 million towards the £12 million cost of the Wearsiders' new stadium.

Sunderland received the biggest grant but at the other end of the country Portsmouth picked up £2 million for their building work on stands at the east and west ends of Fratton Park which cost a total of £2.7 million. Other clubs in the millionaire reception bracket were Barnsley, Carlisle and Raith Rovers. All spent the money on renovation and replacement of stands for the safety and facility of spectators.

The Trusts hand-outs are not confined to League clubs in England and Scotland. It helps soccer at all levels and provides playing strips and equipment for boys' and girls' teams, grants to better the safety and comfort of supporters through family enclosures, new toilets and better access for the disabled.

Grants also go towards curbing hooligans by providing closed circuit television equipment, extra stewarding and better transport facilities.

All genuine supporters of football will applaud the efforts of the Trust to make the game better and safer through their generous award of £138 million since 1990.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CLUB SECTION

For this year's Rothmans Football Yearbook there is a further change in the way in which players in the 92 League clubs are presented. The players appear under the club with whom they finished the season and in an A–Z form for easy reference (see pages 402–528). The names of Trainees and Associated Schoolboys are also included under each club's name.

The club section again comprises four pages, the first features the team photograph depicting those players and officials taken at the commencement of the 1995–96 season. On the second page which gives historical and record details for each club there are new entries in the 'Did you know?' series. Record Transfer fees are usually left to the discretion of the club concerned.

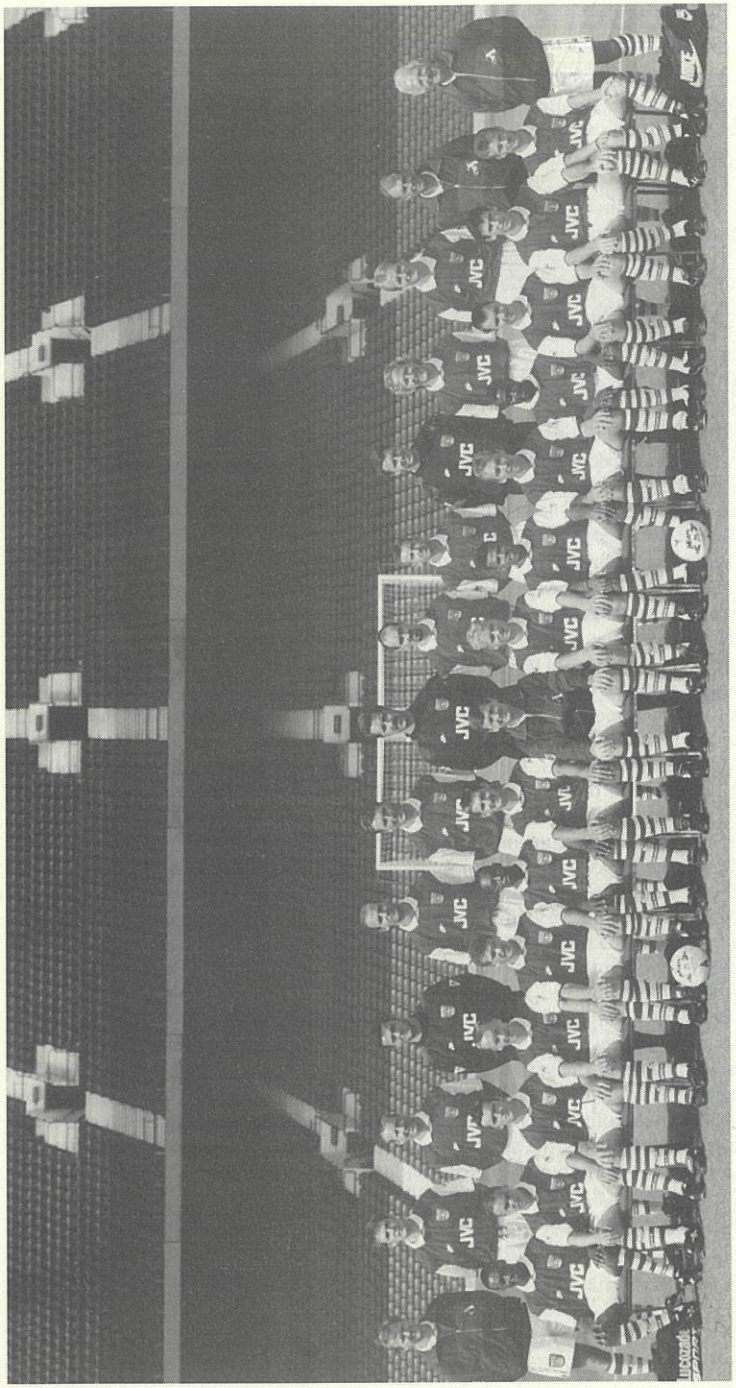

The third and fourth pages of this section present a complete record of the League season, including date, venue, opponents, results, half-time score, League position, goalscorers, attendances and complete line-ups including substitutes where used, for every League game in the 1995–96 season.

Squad numbers in the Premier League have been ignored; those used are the familiar ones, 1–11 while the introduction of a third outfield substitute has been recognised as follows:- the first substitute No. 12, the second No. 13 and the third No. 14. However, if there is a substitute goalkeeper he is represented by No. 15 but only if he replaces the first choice goalkeeper. Otherwise he adopts one of the other three substitute numbers, as there have been several instances where a goalkeeper has been used as an outfield player because of injuries during the game. Players replaced are respectively noted with superior figures ^{1}, ^{2}, ^{3} and ^{g} for goalkeeper. These third and fourth pages also include consolidated lists of goalscorers for the club in League, Coca-Cola Cup and FA Cup matches plus a summary of results in these two main domestic competitions.

The continued increase in the number of matches played on Sundays has resulted in the League positions shown after every League result being taken on that day. Full holiday programmes are also recorded, but the position after mid-week fixtures will not normally have been updated. Attendance figures quoted for the Endsleigh Insurance League are those which appeared in the Press at the time. But those in the FA Carling Premiership are official. The attendance statistics published on pages 569–571 are those officially issued by the FA Premier League and the Football League at the end of the season.

In the totals at the top of each column on page 4, substitute appearances are listed separately by the '+', but have been amalgamated in the totals which feature in the players historical section in the directory mentioned above. Thus these appearances include those as substitute. In fact the directory again features those names appearing on the FA Premier League and Football League's Retained list, which is published at the end of May. Each player's height and weight where known, plus birth place, birth date and source together with total League goals and appearances for each club he has represented, can be found as in previous editions. The player's details remain under the club which retained him at the end of the season. An asterisk '*' by a player's name indicates that he was given a free transfer at the end of the 1995–96 season, a dagger '†' against a name means that he is a non-contract player, a double dagger '‡' indicates that the player's registration was cancelled during the season and a section mark '§' shows the player to be a trainee or associated schoolboy who has made League appearances. Appearances by players in the play-offs are not included in their career totals.

There is also a directory of all League club managers to be found on pages 532–541.

By that time, Hull City were well away having entered the FA Cup in their initial season and the Football League, Second Division after only a year.

Foundation: There is some doubt about the foundation of Leyton Orient, and, indeed, some confusion with clubs like Leyton and Clapton over their early history. As regards the foundation, the most favoured version is that Leyton Orient was formed originally by members of Homerton Theological College who established Glyn Cricket Club in 1881 and then carried on through the following winter playing football. Eventually many employees of the Orient Shipping Line became involved and so the name Orient was chosen in 1888.

The things they said ...

Luton chairman David Kohler, after winning a High Court injunction putting a temporary stop on manager David Pleat's switch to Sheff Wed:
"Someone has to stand up and set an example to fans. It seems that the only loyalty left in football comes from fans and directors. Players and managers don't seem to give a damn."

Alan Thorne, George Graham's former chairman at Millwall, after not being called to give evidence to the FA commission which found the sacked Arsenal manager guilty of accepting "bungs":
"I'm shocked and disgusted. It's typical of the FA. They're run just like masons. George is the most honourable man I have known."

Brazilian sports minister Pele, horrified at the escalating violence in his country's football:
"The time has gone for persuasion - punishment is necessary."

Man City manager Alan Ball:
"Players of today aren't facing up to their responsibilities in return for their salaries and adulation. I speak to other managers and they're saying the same thing."

Spurs chairman Alan Sugar, dismayed by criticism from fans and from former star Jürgen Klinsmann:
"I've worked my nuts off for this club. I will not stand for this abuse. If there's someone out there who thinks they can do better and put up more money than I have for the club, then good luck to them. But put up or shut up."

Former Spurs star Jürgen Klinsmann:
"There is a big question mark over whether his heart is in the club and football. I would not have wanted to leave Spurs if Sugar had shown more ambition."

Spurs chairman Alan Sugar, brandishing Klinsmann's shirt at a TV interview:
"He signed it 'To Alan, with a very special thankyou'. I'm bloody sure it's a very special thankyou. I'm the blooming mug that relaunched his career. I wouldn't wash my car with that shirt now. You can auction it among your viewers for charity."

George Graham's reasons for not appealing against his one-year ban:
"I do not have a bottomless pocket ... I feel in my heart I would not get a fair hearing ... and lastly I want to get on with the rest of my life.... My aim is to be back in football management within the year."

Wimbledon manager Joe Kinnear, after captain Vinnie Jones had a dismissal revoked:
"I'm very glad to see that common sense has prevailed. I'm pleased that the linesman has seen the video and agreed he made a mistake. It proves that referees and linesmen are human after all."

Everton's Anders Limpar, on being booked in a Cup-Winners Cup match by referee Roger Phillipe (Luxembourg) for taking a free-kick too quickly:
"I have never heard of anything like this. You won't find it in the rule book ... If the opposition has been penalized, you are entitled to expect some advantage from a free-kick."

The Football League reaction to the Bosman ruling:
"We expect to maintain the present-day system, as we believe that three-quarters of full-time footballers would lose their jobs under the proposed arrangements."

The reaction of PFA chief executive Gordon Taylor:
"While I'm concerned about the consequences, there are obviously great opportunities for star players to capitalise on their ability."

Sheff Wed manager David Pleat:
"If there is no incentive for Endsleigh League clubs to produce quality players, that will be a very bad thing for the game in this country."

Premier League chief executive Rick Parry:
"There has been a bizarre, hysterical reaction even by football standards.... Our system will survive in some form. It isn't a bad model, and what happened with Bosman in Belgium couldn't have happened here."

Wolves manager Graham Taylor after another lack-lustre performance, a home draw against bottom club Luton, leaves them floundering near the relegation zone:
"At the end of the day it's results-oriented, this game, and our results aren't anything like we would like them to be."

Sheff Wed manager David Pleat, on the reported transfer request of Romanian defender Dan Petrescu, who has three years of his contract still to run:
"If he doesn't want to be in our first team, perhaps he can play in our reserves. I am very unhappy. The club will not be held to ransom. Dan has not been knocking at my door. It is his agent who is demanding more money."

Manager Bruce Rioch, on FIFA referee Martin Bodenham after Arsenal lose their unbeaten record at Chelsea:
"He's past his sell-by date. This is the first time I've ever criticised an official and it will be the last, but he didn't give right decisions and he let far too much go. He was poor by Premier League standards."

Everton manager Joe Royle on the jailing in Scotland of striker Duncan Ferguson for a head-butting incident while playing for Rangers:
"Anyone who knows him will tell you he's a very pleasant young man and isn't a bad lad at all. He's been guilty sometimes of stupidity, but mostly of immaturity. Consider that a young man who is certainly no danger to society is now behind bars with hardened criminals."

Wolves owner Sir Jack Hayward, speaking in the Bahamas of manager Graham Taylor (before their 4-1 home defeat by Stoke):
"The more I see of Graham, the more I meet him, the more impressed I am with him. I held the view he was the best man available when we appointed him and it is a view I continue to hold.... He's not just a manager, he's a psychiatrist who is able to think his way around matters."

Torquay player-manager Don O'Riordan, sacked after their 8-1 home defeat by Scunthorpe:
"I don't understand it. We did everything right in training, but yesterday every time they came near our goal they scored. I'm very disappointed. I still think I'm a good manager."

UEFA president Lennart Johansson on the judgment in the European Court on the Bosman case:
"The transfer system may not be the perfect model, but the last thing any of us need is some dictate from a European court which turns our sport upside-down."

The FA commission investigating the George Graham "bung" allegations:
"Mr Graham gave evidence about the payments [£140,500 in £50 notes and a banker's draft for £285,000] being unsolicited. However, even if this is right, as a respected manager ... we find that he must have known how serious a matter it was for him to be receiving this amount from an agent. ... Mr Graham told us that he did not declare the payments to Arsenal because he did not consider them to be connected to transfers. We do not accept this. When he received the bundles of cash in the Park Lane Hotel, he must have reflected on the fact that he had only really succeeded in negotiating a cut for Mr Hauge in relation to the Lydersen deal."

Chelsea Chairman Ken Bates, in a letter to Matthew Harding, owner of Stamford Bridge:
"Being a director brings responsibilities, duties and privileges. In view of your behaviour, your privileges are being withdrawn."

Birmingham manager Barry Fry, following the Anglo-Italian Cup tie in Italy after which his side were involved in altercations with Ancona coach Massimo Cacciatori:
"He [Cacciatori] attacked three players during the match and at the end he wanted to fight anyone in sight. It was disgraceful. If I'd done that in England, I would be banned for life."

Marine manager Roly Howard, after his side's narrow 11-2 defeat in the FA Cup by Shrewsbury:
"It may sound daft, but until we let in those three goals just before half-time I thought we were the better side."

Coventry manager Ron Atkinson on the joys of football despite getting knocked out of the Coca-Cola Cup by Wolves:
"Once you've had a taste of it you never have enough. You tell me a better way to spend Wednesday night - under the floodlights at a cracking stadium, big game, plenty at stake. Not even Coronation Street is that good."

FA chief executive Graham Kelly, continuing to support much-harassed England coach Terry Venables:
"I don't know of anybody in football who has had to suffer such a constant barrage of adverse comment, which must have affected his reputation, not as a football coach, but as a person. I think that's sad. If things can be proved, fine. But it's very far from that at the moment as far as I can see.... We appointed him as the England coach, and I've seen nothing in his coaching to question that decision. Nor have I seen very much that really affects him from outside. He seems to have a remarkable ability to focus and do the job very well."

The Recorder of London County Court, when ruling in favour of a businessman suing England coach Terry Venables as a debtor:
"I do not accept his [Venables'] evidence as entirely reliable, to put it at its most charitable.... Unfortunately for Mr Venables and the defendant's company [Scribes West], his evidence under oath contradicts what he said not only in liquidation proceedings but in his own published autobiography."

Louis Kilcoyne, president of the FA of Ireland, on manager Jack Charlton's retirement:
"The FAI and the people of Ireland owe Jack a huge debt of gratitude for all he has done for football and the country in the last 10 years. Jack has steered our international team to levels of success never before achieved. In doing this he has helped to expand the game into every corner of Ireland.... Thanks Jack, you have been a manager in a million."

Wimbledon captain Vinnie Jones, likening Chelsea's Ruud Gullit to two pot-bellied pigs he owns, after being sent off at Stamford Bridge when he was given a second yellow card for a foul on the Dutchman:
"They don't squeal as much as him."

A Wimbledon spokesman after studying a video of the foul on Ruud Gullit that resulted in the 11th dismissal of Vinnie Jones's career and caused him to squeal about the referee's decision:
"We believe referee Dermot Gallagher had no alternative but to take the action he did. We have stood by Vinnie in the past when we felt he was being unfairly treated, but it is not something we do blindly."

UEFA president Lennart Johansson, on FIFA leader João Havelange's assertion that the 2006 World Cup will go to Africa:
"That decision will not be taken for another four years and is a matter for the whole of FIFA, not just the president. ... It is dictatorial. It is not for the president to travel around the world deciding where the World Cup should be held ... this simply had to stop."

UEFA chairman Lennart Johansson, on Arsenal vice-chairman David Dein's 'blueprint for a European League':
"I will read the proposal tonight - if I can keep awake."

Bolton manager Colin Todd, in his programme notes for the match with Villa:
"I am not wishing to highlight any particular official and I am not moaning because of the position in which we find ourselves in the League table. But the standard of refereeing in the Premiership is appalling."

Spurs chairman Alan Sugar on UEFA's move to expand European club competitions, proposals for a Super League, and the growing elitism of the top clubs:
"You would have thought that [the £30-40m a year ploughed into football by Sky] was an amazing windfall for the 20 clubs, but what happens is that the money seems to flow into escalating transfer fees, escalating players' salaries, and no one ever seems to win. If the [new] deal is worth £150m or £200m, I think the clever thing is to allocate some of that money to the development of the game."

Scottish referee Jim McGilvray, critical of FIFA's edicts, on why he resigned:
"The day I had to book Gascoigne for celebrating scoring a goal was the last straw - that was the day I decided to pack it in."

Newcastle manager Kevin Keegan rationalising the incidents in the Premiership match at Maine Road that persuaded the FA to bring misconduct charges against his new Colombian signing Faustino Asprilla:
"He's from Latin America. That's the way they are."

Norwich manager Gary Megson, after chairman Robert Chase sold two players to reduce the club's overdraft from £4.5m to £1.9m:
"I'm furious, flabbergasted and bewildered. It's ludicrous what the board have done. This has got absolutely nothing to do with football and I can't see what they're trying to achieve. I didn't sanction the moves, and I'm not party to either transfer.... It's me and the players now against the world.... Things couldn't be any worse, but we will just have to adopt a siege mentality, ... I've no intention of resigning.... I've never quit in my life."

Manchester United's Roy Keane, the day before his sending off for Ireland against Russia:
"I think I've only been booked a couple of times in the last dozen games, which is good for me. I had better not say any more about that, or I'll probably be sent off next week."

From a faxed letter to Kevin Keegan from FIFA secretary Sepp Blatter, moved by the Newcastle manager's sporting reaction to their devastating defeat in the 4-3 epic at Anfield:
"I have been greatly impressed by your remarks regarding your commitment to attacking football and about referees' rights to make human errors. Allow me, on behalf of FIFA, and those who believe in fair play, to commend you for the positive attitude you bring to our game with comments such as these - especially in the disappointment of defeat in such an important match."

Martin Prothero, Umbro promotions director, after Man United abandon their grey away strip, costing his company many millions of pounds:
"We had a difficulty with that particular shade of grey and its configuration with the other colours. The problem was that we tested it on a really dark day, whereas every game in which the kit was used was a bright day. The different hue it produced was incredible."

Tim Gardiner, Umbro International's marketing manager, stressing that England's change strip, unlike Man United's, is not grey but indigo blue, and rejecting the theory that England played in it against Bulgaria last month to advertise the availability of a colour designed to go with jeans:
"It's an interpretation of something that England have worn before, the pale blue which was really popular during the Mexico World Cup [of 1986]."

Man Utd manager Alex Ferguson, after 10-man Leeds had eschewed their dreadful form and pushed the Premiership leaders all the way before Roy Keane scored a late winner:
"If they played like that every week, they would be up near the top. You wonder if it is just because they are playing Manchester United. Pathetic, I think. We can accept any club coming here and trying their hardest as long as they do it every week. No wonder managers get the sack."

Newcastle manager Kevin Keegan, after his side win at Leeds:
"You don't say what he [Ferguson] said about Leeds. You just don't say that in football. He's gone down a lot in my estimation.... United have not won it yet.... I'd love to beat them now, love to."

Glenn Hoddle, on accepting the job as England coach:
"It has been a heart-rending time for me, these last few days. Chelsea have done everything right. They offered me a super contract, but it is just an ambition I have had. The only job I would have left Chelsea for was the national job, and that goes for any club in Britain and Europe."

Man Utd manager Alex Ferguson, whose first thoughts are for Newcastle after his team clinch the title:
"I feel for them. I feel for the whole club. Newcastle have had a fantastic season. Their supporters were brilliant to us when we played up there. There was no bitterness, no spite. We are not gloating, but we are quietly satisfied. We have done the right thing by the kids and stuck with them."

Man Utd captain Steve Bruce, echoing his manager's sentiments:
"We have been in Newcastle's situation twice in the last five years. We know what it feels like. They've been a credit to English football."

Kevin Keegan, in final defeat:
"Our congratulations go to Manchester United and their supporters. Everyone has talked about our collapse, but that doesn't do justice to what they have achieved in turning round what looked an impossible situation."

Eric Cantona, breaking his 15-month silence on last season's moment of madness at Selhurst Park:
"Before that night I was behaving like a child. I was prepared to repeat the same mistake again and again. After it, I realised that was an irresponsible habit.... I don't think of him [Simmons] much, only that his assault on the lawyer last Thursday speaks for itself."

Carlisle chairman Michael Knighton, as his club's survival in Division 2 depends on the result of the match between Brighton and York to be replayed after the end of the season because the original fixture had to be abandoned:
"They [the Football League] are messing about with our livelihoods and I will not stand back and watch this absurd degree of ineptitude by our administrators. I shall be calling for resignations, and a High Court writ for negligence is a real possibility."

Birmingham joint owner David Sullivan, insisting there was nothing sinister about the sacking of manager Barry Fry:
"We feel Barry has taken the club as far as he can [15th in Div 1].... After three years and 61 players, we think it is time someone else is entitled to a go."

Barry Fry's answerphone message the same day:
"Kristine's gone shopping as usual and I've gone to the JobCentre looking for new employment. Funny ol' game, innit?"

David Willis of the National Sporting Club, which was raided by the police investigating alleged irregularities in ticket sales for Euro 96:
"It is now very clear that the right hand at the FA did not know what the left hand was doing. We, as a reputable organisation, legitimately offered hospitality packages for Euro 96 on the basis that we were on the approved FA commercial directors' ticket list. But it seems that down the corridor at the FA, the tournament director Mr Kirton and other officials did not know anything about that list."

Former FA commercial director Trevor Phillips, who resigned because of allegations he described as spurious:
"I did not tell them [Sportsworld and two other companies whose premises were raided by the police] that they were authorised to resell tickets and I am very surprised to see it suggested, by one report at least.... At no time did I give any such authorisation nor, indeed, would it have been my responsibility to do so."

FA chief executive Graham Kelly, when asked if commercial director Trevor Phillips had resigned:
"Not necessarily."

Eric Cantona, commenting on his omission from France's Euro 96 squad:
"Since I was not completely dead and since I even resurrected, they have done everything they could to make sure I died a second time."

England coach Terry Venables, after quizzing his players regarding the damage to their plane on the way back from Hong Kong: "The England squad has accepted collective responsibility. The matter is now being dealt with internally."

Former referee Clive Thomas on the flurry of red and yellow cards at the start of Euro 96:
"They are refereeing like headmasters, not using man management. They are under pressure [from UEFA], but I blame them for not demanding to be given the leeway to use their common sense. We have inconsistent refereeing, but consistent yellow-carding."

England's assistant coach Bryan Robson, defending the squad against lurid tabloid tales of debauchery:
"The young players are frightened to death to play for England because of the publicity they get for absolutely anything. Paul Ince goes to a private barbecue and there's a photo of him on the front page of a national newspaper. He's had two bottles of Budweiser."

THE SCOTTISH SEASON 1995-96

The League programme this season has been of great interest. The usual comments have been flying around at the appropriate time: Why not have a winter break? (But they never say when, unless it is for the whole of December, January and February. Why doesn't someone explain to them that we do not have a continental climate?) We must get back to a bigger Premier division. (So that we can be in it, and stay comfortably somewhere out of relegation's reach.) It is so hard for the players and the managers. (Well, they're getting paid enough for it; and no one needs to be a manager if he does not want to.) And so on.

The Premier Division maintained its interest until the end: at the top, Rangers assumed their customary position, but this time they were harried by a Celtic team which at last was regaining some style and class: note that the Bhoys lost only one game in the season; but, of course, they had too many draws; that, and the fact that Rangers came out on top of the Titans clashes (one win and three draws), was enough to see Rangers home for their 8th consecutive title. But we are all looking forward to next season already.

The top two soon left the rest far astern, and the whole division broke into several groups. The second group of Aberdeen and Hearts, two teams with ambitious and effective managers, slogged it out to see who would achieve third place: it was all fairly academic, for Aberdeen were already in Europe by Christmas, whilst Hearts were assured of their place when they reached the Cup Final as soon as Rangers were League champions. Hibs promised early in the season, but rather lost their way and finished down the order. Raith Rovers always seemed just about safe from the threat of relegation, but Motherwell flirted with the bottom of the table until their manager clearly said a few necessary words, and the team won six games out of seven in a row and shot clear of danger. Kilmarnock produced some good results when needed, and the two bottom places were left to Partick and Falkirk. The troubled Falkirk looked doomed as the cold winds and snows of February gave way to the cold winds and snows of March; and so it turned out, with Partick at least giving themselves a chance in the play-off.

There was an intriguing battle at the top of the First Division: when Airdrie dropped gradually out of the running, it left five teams seeking the top: for a while Dundee held their own and looked likely promotion candidates, but they faltered badly. All along it was Dundee United and Dunfermline who seemed to have the edge, but Greenock Morton made a strong challenge, and St Johnstone, too, with their new routines, were not far away. It all boiled up nicely in the last few weeks with the contenders locked against each other: Dundee United, apparently anchored at the top, blew two chances to stay there when they lost to both the Saints and the Pars. It was the latter who at last, after three years of disappointment, took the one promotion place. Greenock Morton v Dundee United on the last afternoon of the League season was a game of immense significance; in the end, United, thanks to a very favourable goal difference, grabbed the point they needed and advanced to the play-off against Partick. Morton, newly promoted into the First Division, did very well to challenge for a further move up. Next season's First Division is looking like being very lively already.

The play-off between Partick Thistle and Dundee United for the right to the last place in the Premier Division was an epic: in the first match, at Firhill, Thistle took an early lead, and it was only five minutes from the end when United snatched the equaliser - which gave them perhaps a slight edge for the return home fixture. However, at Tannadice a tense first half brought no goals but plenty to keep the fans in fine voice. Then, in 72 minutes, Partick scored with a penalty, and as the time ticked away, it looked to be all over. Within a few seconds of full time, there was another equaliser. So to extra time: that, too, was almost spent and the dreaded penalty shoot-out looked imminent, when United produced an exquisite move which gave them victory. It was hard luck on a Thistle side which gave its all, and particularly for their manager who watched in disbelief as, for the third time, the plum was tweaked from his mouth. The United manager, too, had a traumatic time; so did many of each side's supporters. Both games were played to packed grounds. It is hard to argue against this being what the public wants to see, albeit at great strain to everyone's nerves!

At the lower end of the First Division, Dumbarton failed to take a grip, and were for the drop at a very early date. In the other relegation place came Hamilton Accies who, after a disastrous start to the season, very nearly reached safety. It is not easy without one's own ground, and they will surely settle down once their new home is ready.

Stirling Albion were the team of the Second Division. After a sloppy start, they rapidly took the Division apart and proved themselves far and away the best. East Fife started well, and managed to hold their own through the long season, always with a little in hand over Berwick Rangers, who none the less put in a determined push for promotion. Stirling Albion look to have the class to do well in the First Division, whilst hopefully the Fifers can remain afloat in their new ground in the middle of Methil Docks.

The lower end of the Second Division did not lack interest. Stranraer, having had their fling in the First Division, very nearly ran straight through into the Third Division, but a timely win in their last game kept their status. Forfar Athletic, having a mid-table place earlier, had slowly sunk until it was too late: a determined effort in the last games nearly saved them; but it was not enough. They joined Montrose who had a rather miserable league season bringing up the rear. So the two teams that came up this season returned downward for the next season.

Meantime, the reverse was happening in the Third Division. Last season Meadowbank Thistle and Brechin City went down. This time, they return to the Second Division. Now, however, Thistle have transformed to Livingston, and, with a new ground and vastly increased crowds, they have done well. True, it took them some time before they could bring a win to Almondvale, but, with the Bard in good voice and verse, they put forward a major challenge which none of the others could match. Brechin City had good, solid performances when it mattered, and both the Highland clubs missed their opportunities.

The first of the cups to be contested was the Coca-Cola (League) Cup: in the early rounds most of the results were predictable, though Livingston held St Johnstone at McDiarmid Park and won on penalties. Airdrie removed Hibs, and Dundee removed Kilmarnock, whilst Rangers, coasting along happily against Stirling Albion, lost two goals in the last ten minutes and were glad to hear the final whistle, still a goal ahead. In the quarter-finals, Dundee beat Hearts 5-4 on penalties after sharing eight goals in full and extra time. Aberdeen beat Rangers in the first semi-final, whilst Dundee won the clash of First Division clubs against Airdrie: in the rather low key final, Dundee could not find their best form and Aberdeen's two goals proved to be more than enough.

The League Challenge Cup: Livingston and Stirling Albion again did well, but it was Stenhousemuir who took the headlines, disposing of Dundee and Stirling Albion in the later rounds. In the final Stenhousemuir and Dundee United could score no goals, and in the end it was Stenhousemuir who triumphed in the penalty shoot-out: it was their first trophy, and a just reward for some stirring cup performances over the last few seasons.

The Tennent's Scottish Cup provided its ration of exciting matches, and gave several clubs the opportunity of taking on the Old Firm - with predictable results both in goals and cash. The Police rightly took good care of possible crowd difficulties at some grounds: Keith's match against Rangers was transferred to Pittodrie, whilst Celtic took on Whitehill Welfare at Easter Road. Subsequently Caledonian Thistle, having defeated the redoubtable Stenhousemuir, played Rangers at Tannadice in the quarter-final round, a notable 'first' for the Highlanders. Caledonian Thistle were disappointed not to be able to host the game at Telford Street, but the Ibrox manager has mentioned the possibility of coming north with a team to take on Caley when their new ground by the firth opens. Another quarter-final game brought heartbreak to Dundee United. For an hour they led Celtic by a single goal, only to lose two goals in the final minutes. Aberdeen and Celtic lost in the semi-finals, and Hearts could look forward to their first final since 1986. They had not won the Cup since 1956. In the final, Hearts lost their captain in the 7th minute, and they were never able to match Rangers, for whom Laudrup was involved in all five goals.

Motherwell were hit too early in the season, but even a fine second-leg performance away from home could not retrieve them. Raith Rovers came well through two rounds, but then came across too stiff competition in Bayern Munich - though they played pluckily, and came away with much credit from the encounter. Celtic did well in their first match, but then lost to Paris St Germain in both legs of the next. Rangers overcame a difficult opponent in the preliminary round of the European Cup, but failed to impress in the league section. In general, though there were some stout performances, our representatives could not match the top continental opponents. We can but look forward to next season.

It was quite a different matter at International level. Scotland cannot pretend to any players of tremendous skill and ability to match some of the European sides, but they can show great tenacity and endurance, and Craig Brown has given the team a belief in itself which has produced results far exceeding the hopes of many. It was indeed a triumph to reach the European finals in England; and, if we were desperately disappointed to miss out on the qualification for the quarter-finals by the smallest of margins, yet the fans could rejoice in three matches undertaken with energy, planning, purpose. We could indeed be proud of them. The Under 21 team, too, has achieved much. World Cup qualifying games are ahead, and we are in a tough group: we can be assured that, come what may, our side will give of its best.

WELSH FOOTBALL 1995–96

When Bobby Gould became the fourth Wales manager in eighteen months in August 1995, Welsh football heaved a huge sigh of relief. After the turmoil created by Terry Yorath's replacement by John Toshack, the man who won the FA Cup for Wimbledon in 1988 was given a two-year contract. A dispirited nation desperately needed a period of stability.

Failure to reach the 1994 World Cup Finals by the width of a crossbar had been exacerbated by Toshack's one-match reign and he was succeeded by the highly respected but ultimately unsuitable Mike Smith who was in charge for the second time. Dignified to the end, Smith was sacked after poor European Championship performances and replaced by the effervescent Gould. He took his adopted country to his heart and wore his Welshness on his sleeve.

Gould's enthusiasm for Welsh football cannot be faulted. He certainly talks a good game but a record of one win in five matches shows why the jury is still out on his achievements on the international stage. Wales beat Moldova (1-0) and lost to Germany (2-1) at home and drew in Albania (1-1) in the European Championship before going down in friendlies in Italy (3-0) and Switzerland (2-0).

Gould has shown a refreshing willingness to experiment—leaving out established players like Rush, Hughes and Southall for various reasons—and World Cup qualifying matches against San Marino, Holland, Turkey and Belgium, will provide a more realistic assessment of his progress in the coming season. He made an encouraging start with a 5-0 win over San Marino.

At one stage, it looked as if Barry Town would dominate Welsh domestic football. Having become the first League of Wales team to go full-time, they swept all before them with a 41-game unbeaten cup and league run first bringing them the championship title. Seventeen points behind came Newtown, who deservedly won a UEFA Cup spot, while third-placed Conwy United qualified for the much-maligned Intertoto Cup.

A mixture of experienced professionals and promising youngsters seemed likely to win Barry the treble but loss of form, coupled with the death in a road accident of 22-year-old midfielder Matthew Holtham, took their toll as the season drew to a close. Ebbw Vale knocked Barry out of the League Cup in the semi-finals and then little Llansantffraid beat them in a truly memorable Welsh Cup Final.

Llansantffraid's extraordinary success coincided with the three Welsh Endsleigh League clubs, Wrexham, Swansea and Cardiff, all being excluded from the Welsh Cup. As part of UEFA's campaign to make Welsh football more representative, only clubs playing in the Welsh pyramid could enter. Newport, Merthyr and Colwyn Bay, the three Welsh teams playing in England who UEFA say must return by 1997, all had mediocre league seasons but Colwyn Bay's FA Cup run took them to the second round before they lost to Blackpool.

In the Endsleigh League, Wrexham narrowly missed out on a Second Division promotion play-off place, Swansea were relegated to the Third where Cardiff had their worst-ever season.

With Barry already in the UEFA Cup as league champions, the small Mid Wales village team of Llansantffraid were assured a place in the European Cup Winners Cup—whatever the outcome of the Welsh Cup Final. Sheer determination to qualify as winners—in an all-round performance of no little skill—drove them on to a famous victory in an exciting penalty shoot-out. Three times they led in normal and extra-time, only to be pegged back by Barry.

They eventually triumphed 3-2 when keeper Andy Mulliner saved the last Barry penalty after an undistinguished display in the previous 120 minutes. Six years ago, Llansantffraid where an amateur village team but, under the guidance of manager Graham Breeze and his assistant, 38-year-old striker Tomi Morgan, the Saints will experience their fifteen minutes of fame in Europe this season.

Within three days of the final, Barry player-manager Paul Giles surprisingly resigned over a bonus dispute and along with brother David joined Ebbw Vale, Paul as assistant to John Lewis, the manager.

Spare a thought for Afan Lido, another small-time club who reached for the stars. Championship runners-up to Bangor City in 1994–95, they nearly became the first League of Wales side to reach the first round of any European competition but were narrowly beaten by RAF Yelgava from Latvia in the UEFA Cup. Last season, the bubble burst and they were relegated to the Office Visions Welsh League with Llanelli. All of Welsh football will be hoping the same fate does not befall Llansantffraid—population 954—after their European adventure.

NORTHERN IRISH FOOTBALL 1995–96

Northern Ireland football experienced one of the most astonishing seasons since the establishment of the Irish FA. Promotion and relegation introduced in August proved a success yet it also created many problems.

First Division clubs found themselves in near bankruptcy with reduced attendances and no income from the traditional matches against crowd-pulling glamour teams. It was a hand-to-mouth existence with a few even on occasions opting not to publish a programme.

It was found that two divisions of eight did not really work. Clubs met each other too frequently, the air of anticipation vanished from derby games while style and tactics became so familiar that teams cancelled each other out.

Fortunately, this set-up is to be altered from season 1997–98 with the Premier Division increased to 10 teams and probably two junior sides introduced into the First Division. Already a few have expressed interest but they ponder on whether it is worth the additional expenditure – and risk.

Then there were the disputes between the clubs and the soccer authorities. Portadown became involved in a wrangle over a young player's registration while Glenavon found themselves forced to take legal action over using striker Marc Kenny while still serving a suspension imposed when with Bangor the previous season. "I hope this era is over and that in future any disagreements can be solved within football," said IFA president Jim Boyce.

Portadown proved to be the team of the year. They were the inaugural Premier Division champions, Ronnie McFall got the Manager of the Year Award, midfielder Peter Kennedy was named Player of the Year while striker Garry Haylock collected the leading scorer's Golden Boot with 41 goals.

Crusaders had to concede the title but finished second; Glentoran, under manager Tommy Cassidy, after a lean spell won the Bass Irish Cup and Cliftonville the Coca-Cola Floodlit Cup – their first trophy in 16 years.

For Linfield, whose supporters have been brought up on a diet of success for decades, it was a disastrous year with no success in any series. Manager Trevor Anderson put 10 on the transfer list, is now engaged on rebuilding his squad and realises there cannot be a repeat performance. Fans, who have revealed remarkable tolerance, simply will not accept such mediocrity.

Sponsorship has been maintained for all competitions apart from the Ulster Cup while negotiations are taking place for a new three-year deal, probably worth £300,000, for the televising of all Irish League tournaments.

Manager Bryan Hamilton expressed satisfaction with Northern Ireland's international performances. In fact, his squad narrowly missed qualifying for the European Championship finals after the away draw with Portugal, the 5-3 win over Austria, the Republic's surprise failures and, in retrospect, that 2-1 defeat by Latvia in May 1995 was the real knock-out blow.

Hamilton, however, is gradually moulding a promising side and, more important, there is an excellent flow of talent from the grass roots. "Our resources are limited but it is essential we utilise them to the best advantage," said Hamilton. "We are concentrating on development at all levels from mini-soccer to the senior squad. Things are now slotting into place but it is a process which must continue."

The Irish FA have appointed 16 development officers, and completed a £350,000 refurbishment and rebuilding programme at their Windsor Avenue, Belfast, headquarters, without resorting to capital investment. Now they have an ultra-modern administrative set-up comparable with any in Europe.

Northern Ireland next embarks on the World Cup campaign with matches in Group Nine against Ukraine, Armenia, Albania, Portugal and Germany, and, with only one team qualifying it will be a formidable task to reach the France '98 finals. Who knows what will happen but the Irish FA at least have the satisfaction of collecting £1.5m from the televising of the series and, of course, a capacity attendance for the August 1997 World Cup tie with Germany which coincides with the opening of the multi-million pound stand at Windsor Park's Spion Kop.

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP 1994–96
Finals

Hindsight – that happy condition of perfect vision – may well reflect on Euro 96 as being the 'nearly' competition. England nearly reached the final, the venues were almost full, there were few outbreaks of hooliganism and there was early – if unfulfilled – promise of some memorable performances.

England began unimpressively, drawing 1-1 with Switzerland, but on the second day, non-partizan observers might have been lulled into thinking that this was to be an outstanding tournament when Denmark, the holders, drew 1-1 with Portugal. Alas, neither team played as well as that in subsequent games and it was left to one or two of the unfancied contestants to cause a stir.

Notable among these were the Czech Republic, who were hard, determined and not a little skilful and Croatia, who were too laid back to really succeed, but had in Davor Suker an outstanding centre-forward. His audacious scoring attempt from the half-way line against Denmark was pure Pele at his best.

Among the huge disappointments were Holland and Italy. England may have trimmed down its Christmas tree, but Holland were suffering from Dutch Elm disease. Plagued with problems off the field, their display against England was a shambles and though England fully deserved their 4-1 win it perhaps presented an inflated opinion of Terry Venables' team. Italy really threw their chances away by resting some players against the Czechs and the French, who declined to enter the competition with Eric Cantona and David Ginola, gradually deteriorated.

After a quiet beginning, Spain gave England some uncomfortable moments before the inevitable penalty shoot-out ended their interest. The five England penalty kicks were as near perfect as could be expected and arguably bettered only by the five taken by Uruguay against Brazil in the 1995 Copa America final.

However, it was England's turn to lose on penalties against their eternal rivals Germany, Gareth Southgate being the unfortunate player to have his kick saved. Two of the quarter-finals and both semi-finals were decided by the farce of such penalties.

It was left to the disciplined Germans, of course, to reach the final, unfazed by either pre-match tabloid hostility or by conceding an early goal against England. They managed to avenge their defeat against Czechoslovakia in 1976, ironically then by penalty kicks. This time it was the only 'golden goal'of the tournament which separated the teams. There were claims that Oliver Bierhoff's winning effort was scored with another player standing offside, but the Czechs' penalty had been derived from an infringement outside the penalty box.

Afterwards, the Germans paid for an advertisement in The Times praising the treatment they had received in England. Perhaps we have many things to learn from them.

With goalscoring at a low ebb, it was defenders who took most of the honours. England won the Fair Play Award, the Dutch fans were proclaimed the most well-behaved, but the memory of the tournament as a quality event of outstanding football will quickly fade.

Alan Shearer finished as leading goalscorer in Euro 96 with five to his credit. Here he is congratulated with the first of these goals by Darren Anderton. (Colorsport)

BRITISH AND IRISH INTERNATIONAL GOALSCORERS SINCE 1872

Where two players with the same surname and initials have appeared for the same country, and one or both have scored, they have been distinguished by reference to the club which appears first against their name in the international appearances section (pages 780–830). Unfortunately, four of the scorers in Scotland's 10-2 victory v Ireland in 1888 are unknown, as is the scorer of one of their nine goals v Wales in March 1878.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

There were a couple of largely unheralded events during the last season that were particularly significant for those who feature on this page of the Rothmans Yearbook. Those who wholeheartedly embrace the cause of football chaplaincy, and indeed for those who still—somewhat surprisingly in the face of all its well publicised benefits—view the involvement of a chaplain at a football club with a measure of cynicism. Naturally enough the two events received little or no publicity, at the time or subsequently, but things to do with spiritual or pastoral issues seldom receive the attentions of the media and the football chaplains have never sought the glare of press or TV coverage although it is invariably laudatory when they are subjected to it.

Regular readers of Rothmans know that the football chaplains meet regularly. They hold a two-day national conference at least every other year though it is now becoming an annual event. The latest such took place last October—and it was held at Lilleshall and was sponsored in its entirety by the Premier League. This tacit endorsement by one of the sport's leading bodies was a tremendous encouragement to the chaplains themselves, whose dealings in the game are low-key by design and seldom extend beyond the contacts they have within their own clubs.

To know that their involvement in and contribution to the national sport is welcomed, appreciated and respected, certainly heartened the men concerned as well as sharpening their discussions together and stimulating their activities at their clubs. It was also greatly cheering to those who have long since advocated this form of Christian ministry within the Churches and the world of football. To have the concept of football chaplaincy endorsed and promoted in such a wholehearted manner was hugely encouraging to them, and the thanks of every Christian in football at any level today are due to the Premier League administration for their generous support.

The other event was somewhat more rarefied but provided further evidence of the significance and validity of football chaplaincy—this time within the Church. The Church has long been familiar with chaplains in education and the armed forces for example, but it has been rather guarded, in parts at least, in its acceptance of ministry within sport in general and football in particular.

However, one young theological student with a keen interest in our game was eager to explore the role of the chaplains at League clubs for part of a module in his training to do with non-parochial Christian work. Perhaps to the surprise of some, he was persistent enough to be allowed to seek the assistance in his project from the chaplain of a club near his theological college and the authorities were hugely impressed with the quality of the outcome which was the product of several lengthy discussions between the pair, as well as of meetings with and visits to other chaplains at a variety of different League outfits.

Not only has football taken public recognition of the chaplains that serve within its ranks, but even the Church has accepted and acknowledged that here is an authentic model of Christian service—and that certainly represents major progress!

The chaplains hope that those who read this page will see the value and benefit of chaplaincy work in football and will take appropriate steps to spread the word where this is possible. They would also like to thank the editors of the Rothmans Yearbook for their continued support for this specialist and growing area of work.

UEFA INTERTOTO CUP

Thirty-seven of UEFA's members were represented when the second Intertoto Cup began in June 1996; the notable absentees being English, Scottish and Portuguese clubs.
The eight places left vacant by these withdrawals were filled by additional teams from other countries, while Italy, Spain and Greece did not take up their entire allocation.
Three successful clubs gain access to the first round of the UEFA Cup.

FOOTBALL AND THE LAW

Nearly a decade ago, in 1988, on the eve of the first full-length Butterworth's 376 paged first edition of Sport and the Law, the late Ted Croker complained publicly that I had invented the subject with a Sunday Telegraph series in 1977, followed by a 76 paged 1978 booklet under the same title. He was concerned about police intervention on the playing fields, arguing that football should and could be left to look after its own affairs without legal intervention.

Last season proved how wrong he was. Duncan Ferguson was prosecuted to conviction and imprisonment for head-butting an opponent, John McStay, during a Scottish Premier League game for the same offence which was no less criminal than if it had occurred outside the ground. Off the field, Jean-Marc Bosman obtained a European Court of Justice judgement against the Belgian club Liege and UEFA, that the transfer system and UEFA's 3+2 rule were each in breach of the Treaty of Rome, and thereby as unlawful as Duncan Ferguson's breach of the criminal law.

Each offence could have been predicted from long-standing precedents. Criminal prosecutions for football violence have existed in the United Kingdom since as long as the two first ever prosecutions for football fatalities at the old Leicester Assizes, now the Leicester Crown Court, as R-v-Bradshaw in 1878 and R-v-Moore in 1898. In 1912 an Aston Villa professional player, Harry Kingaby, failed in a challenge to the Football League's retain and transfer system because his lawyers took the wrong legal route under common law case law.

In 1955, while publishing as Corinthians and Cricketers, to be re-issued later this year from Yore Publications, a schoolboy correspondence with England's centre-forward of Victorian England, G.O. Smith, raised the restraint of trade flag in Aldershot County Court for Ralph Banks who had played against Stanley Matthews in the 1953 Coronation Cup Final. The judge refused to tackle the claim in possession proceedings for Banks' Aldershot club house, but before an appeal could be launched, he gained the free transfer he had earlier been refused to Weymouth outside the Football League. Eight years later in 1963 it was George Eastham's blueprint for his London High Court ruling which outlawed the F.A. and Football League's retain and transfer system; and the Bosman judgement is a logical extension of it within the European Union.

Of equal significance within European Law has been the operation of yellow and red cards during the Euro '96 competition, graphically illuminated, appropriately in the Sunday Telegraph by Patrick Barclay, as I was reminded by Colin Malam, whose father's professional career as Albert Malam with the pre-war Huddersfield Town of Alf Young and Ken Willingham, was destroyed by a broken leg in a foul tackle. He wrote:

"No matter how many treats Euro '96 has in store, the Croatian substitute Goran Vlaovic's late winner against Turkey will go down among the goals of the tournament. It ought also to be hailed as a vindication of strict refereeing. The liberal use of yellow and red cards may be hurting, but this was a spectacular piece of evidence that it's working.

When Vlaovic burst over the halfway line, hurdling a rash challenge to earn a clear run at the Turkish goalkeeper, the only way he could have been stopped was for the pursuing Alpay Ozalan to stick out a leg, pull his shirt, or otherwise foul him. The thought must have crossed Alpay's mind like every other in a Nottingham stadium dominated by Turks. But the defender desisted, knowing he would be sure – not just likely – to incur dismissal and suspension from the next match.

Cynics argued afterwards that Alpay should have sacrificed himself nonetheless, that Turkey would probably have survived the consequent free-kick and cling on for a point with 10 men. How tiresome. How old-fashioned. The game's rulers should be congratulated on their campaign against such debilitating negativity, even if it seems to be taking an age for some observers to recognise the link between the hard line established in the 1994 World Cup and a perceptible tilting of the balance towards entertainment.

The complaining classes tend to forget how morally brutalised top-level football had become before FIFA, alarmed by the dull, fear-filled World Cup of 1990 and the distressing submission of a great player, Marco Van Basten, to the violent tackle from behind, at last resolved to act. So the odd case of excessively zealous refereeing is a price worth paying for what we have now. The tactical foul is almost an anachronism."

It wasn't when Pele was assaulted out of the 1966 World Cup in England by Bulgarian and Portuguese players without referee protection, all of whom he has named in My Life and the Beautiful Game. It is now, however, and those who trip over into deliberate and or reckless foul play during the coming season should realise what the late Ted Croker and Duncan Ferguson failed to understand. The law of the land does not stop at the touchline or the boardroom or other offences outside either of them. In 1996–97, sadly, will prove this with well publicised libel and criminal match fixing cases at least in the pipeline.

AVON INSURANCE COMBINATION

After the previous season's excitement when Tottenham Hotspur won the Avon Insurance Combination title by defeating Charlton Athletic in the very last match of the entire season, the 1995–96 Championship became a neck and neck struggle between Spurs, seeking to retain their title, and QPR who finally prevailed by a two point margin.

This was QPR's first Football Combination Championship since 1982–83 and was earned on the back of a run of 13 consecutive victories from January to April. Spurs put up a strong fight to win their fifth AIC title in the last decade and also put together a string of 11 wins in a row. However shock home defeats by Oxford United and Swindon Town put paid to their chances.

Arsenal and Wimbledon both had excellent seasons, finishing in third and fourth places respectively.

The main purpose of the Avon Insurance Combination is to provide a platform for the stars of the future and many players emerged who are likely to become household names.

Chris Plummer of QPR, Steve Slade of Spurs, Jason Euell of Wimbledon, Muzzie Izzet of Chelsea and David Connolly of Watford are just five of many who could be highlighted.

Established stars such as David Platt, Darren Anderton and Illie Dumitrescu also graced the Combination with their presence last season.

Norwich City won the Avon Insurance Enterprise award for the Family Night Football initiative, which saw an average crowd of over 2000 attracted to Carrow Road for AIC games, with two crowds in excess of 3000.

The 1996–97 season will see a restructuring of the Avon Insurance Combination, with Birmingham City, Plymouth Argyle and Torquay United and the three non-league teams, Bath City, Cheltenham Town and AFC Newport leaving the League and the three remaining AIC Division Two teams, Cardiff City, AFC Bournemouth and Swansea City joining a 23 team First Division. Teams will meet each other once. A Cup Competition will also be run and automatic promotion and relegation introduced, with the bottom seven teams being relegated to a newly reformed Division Two for the 1997–98 season along with other accepted high quality applicants.

PONTIN'S LEAGUE

Manchester United clinched the Pontin's League title, their second in three years on 24 April with a 2-0 win over Newcastle United. Jovan Kirovski and Desmond Baker were the goalscorers and although the team suffered a mini-crisis when only one point was taken from two games at the end of March, there was very little doubt that the Championship would go to Old Trafford.

Oddly enough on the same day, the A team had clinched the Lancashire League title by winning 6-1 at Bury. The Pontin's League side might have achieved their success earlier because on the previous Saturday, they had won 4-0 at Nottingham Forest, but on the Monday evening they were beaten 1-0 at Birmingham which kept the title on ice for two days.

United played a number of their reserve games at Bury's Gigg Lane and neighbours Manchester City used Witton Albion's facilities as did Oldham at Stalybridge, Wolverhampton at Telford and Aston Villa at Walsall.

For the 1996–97 season, the constitution of the Pontin's League will be changed, the competing teams split into four divisions as follows:

THE INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Where Football Lives . . .
Rugby Hall Of Fame, Pro-Football Hall Of Fame, Basketball Hall Of Fame, Ice-Hockey Hall Of Fame, Tennis Hall Of Fame . . .

. . . as a football fan have you ever thought why so many major sports are represented by their own 'Hall Of Fame', except the world's favourite game?

Well relax, this travesty is about to be rectified. As befits the country that gave the world football, England will soon be the home to the one and only definitive 'International Football Hall Of Fame'. And for the supporter it won't be a dictatorial and arbitrary election process but one in which you play an integral part in how a player gets selected. Nor will it be biased towards any country or continent – as befits the global scope of 'the beautiful game' it is for the players and fans of every country.

First things first. For all you uninitiated out there asking just what is a 'Hall Of Fame' and why it's so important to our world game, we'll try and explain . . .

The idea behind a 'Hall Of Fame' is to celebrate and commemorate the best sportsmen and women of a given sport. The first major one to establish itself was the Baseball Hall Of Fame which has been going since 1939 in Cooperstown, New York. Through an annual election process, retired players are selected by a group of established baseball journalists.

This is the principle by which most others have followed. But not football (or soccer depending on where you live). Sure there have been exhibitions and self-proclaimed 'museums' in which displays have been set up, yet nothing on a permanent basis that honours the very best players the game has produced. And what a choice there is.

The (unofficial) history of modern football spans well over a hundred years. In that time it has gone through many manifestations and changes in style (especially with the current economic upheaval that's taking place), but most importantly whatever team or country you support it's also produced some exhilarating moments and some magical players – and continues to foster exciting legends for the future.

That's why honouring our heroes in the 'International Football Hall Of Fame' is so necessary: an election process that includes football fans, ex-footballers and journalists from every playing country around the world; and a magnificent new building that will become a shrine for fans and an exciting new leisure complex in its own right.

Celebrating the spirit and enjoyment of the game itself, this will be a magnificent, state-of-the-art building featuring a museum, film auditoriums, an interactive entertainment centre, a training area, a mini-stadium and, of course, at its heart the actual 'Hall Of Fame' itself – a showcase for the chosen few who can truly be called legends!

That's the 'International Football Hall Of Fame'. An inspirational new concept and leisure complex for the players and the fans.

It's been far too long in coming – but now it's become a reality!

The Voting System
The nomination and selection procedures to the International Football Hall Of Fame are designed to represent the views of the general public, the footballers, and the football journalists world-wide. The procedure will mean that it's not the decision of a small group of people – but that it is truly open to debate around the world. And becomes the definitive roll-of-honour for the greatest football players.

We feel that this provides the fairest and most democratic voting procedure.

Can anyone make a nomination?
Yes. Each year any person, anywhere in the world can make one nomination for a retired football player to the International Football Hall Of Fame.

Can any football player be nominated?
No, there are two criteria that have to be met.

(1) A player must have been retired from the professional game for three years from June 30th of the election year. In 1996, therefore, a player must have retired by June 30th 1993.

(2) A player must have played at full international level, gaining at least one cap for their country of origin.

Your nomination can include any player from throughout the history of the game and from any country, not just your own. But unless someone nominates a player they cannot be considered for the International Football Hall Of Fame.

How do you make a nomination?
Your nomination can be sent by post, by facsimile or by E-Mail, and must be made directly to the International Football Hall Of Fame. Only one nomination can be made each year. Your communication should include your name, address and country of residence. All nominations will be collated on a database from which a final list will be produced.

What happens to the list of nominations?
A Selection Committee comprised of an ex-player from each of the countries listed below and Chaired by a member of the Professional Footballers Association (PFA), who also has a vote, will select a shortlist of fifty candidates from the complete list of nominees.

England	Germany	France	Switzerland
Sweden	Italy	Spain	Mexico
Uruguay	Chile	Argentina	USA
Brazil	Japan	Morocco	Australia

The criteria for these participating countries is as follows: (1) those who have won or hosted the World Cup; (2) in addition, a representative nation from continents not represented through this will also be selected by the International Football Hall Of Fame.

This Selection Committee will be brought together during one weekend at the end of each year to produce the shortlist of fifty candidates.

How will a player be elected a 'Hall Of Fame'?
The shortlist of fifty nominees is sent to a selected sports journalist from every FIFA registered country. The journalists choose their top five players and send their selections back to the International Football Hall Of Fame. The five nominees who accumulate the most amount of journalists' votes are elected to the International Football Hall Of Fame. If, in any event, any players end up with the same amount of votes in that top five, then all those players will be elected.

REFEREEING AND THE REFEREES

In a never ending quest for an improvement in fair play FIFA have again altered some of the Laws for the forthcoming season which took effect from the 1st July 1996. The most significant areas involve the 'advantage clause'; an increase in the number of substitutes who can be named and the re-titling of the word 'Linesman'. In addition there are some textual changes plus important instructions.

The most substantial of these changes is likely to occur under Law 5 relating to referees and their use of the 'advantage clause'. From now on a referee will have the rare discretion of applying the advantage but if such anticipated advantage does not materialise he/she can then penalise the original offence. The suggested time scale for credibility in making such a decision is 2/3 seconds. Should a second offence be committed by the offending team's player during the advantage period the referee must penalise the more serious offence.

In order more accurately to reflect the role of the linesman and to encourage more 'political correctness' the term 'Linesman' is replaced by the term 'Assistant Referee'. However this can only be applied to assistants who are qualified referees so unqualified club linesmen or those who are not neutral will remain linesmen as before. Of greater significance is the fact that for the first time the Linesman's/Assistant's duty is to indicate when an attacker is in an off-side position. Surprisingly for so long the previous text made no mention of such an important function.

Also created is a further enhancement of the role of the Fourth Official who will now submit misconduct reports if he sees any misconduct missed by the referee.

The current rule as to the number of substitutes who can be used is not changed, but now the choice can be made from seven who are named prior to the match rather than the previous five.

FIFA particularly remind referees to (a) strictly interpret the 4 step rule for goalkeepers (b) speed up restarts (c) ensure all stoppage time is added and (d) severely punish the unfair tackle from behind.

The National List of Referees appears below and David Allison remains the most senior official. There are ten new referees added to this List namely Messrs A Bates (last season's FA Cup Final Linesman); B Coddington; C T Finch; C J Foy; M R Halsey; T Jones; G Laws; D Pugh; J P Robinson; and R Styles. In addition Graham Barber and Mike Riley have been promoted to the List of Premier League Referees of whom there are nineteen.

Jimmy Allen (b. Poole 16.10.09; d. 2.95). A superb centre-half, signed by Portsmouth from Poole Town in 1930, he played for Pompey in the 1934 F.A. Cup final and represented England twice during the same season. In the summer of 1934, Jimmy joined Aston Villa for £10,775 - a record fee for a defender. Pompey used the transfer fee to build the North Stand at Fratton Park, which is still known as 'the Jimmy Allen' stand. At Villa, he skippered the side that won the Second Division Championship in 1938, but was missing from the team that lost to seven record-breaking Ted Drake goals in the defeat by Arsenal in December, 1935. After guesting for several clubs during the war, he retired in 1944.

At Kenilworth Road he teamed up with Gordon Turner and bagged 20 goals in 63 League games. Two years later he was snapped up by Northampton Town, where his 25 goals in 30 League games assured 'the Cobblers' of promotion from the Third Division. On the back of that strike rate, Preston North End signed him in 1963 and the following year he played in the F.A. Cup final against West Ham. An unfortunate injury six months later put him out of the game and he was forced to retire in 1966.

His playing career at the County Ground began in 1947 but, after three years and 12 appearances, he was signed by Arsenal. At Highbury he amassed 146 games in a nine year career before returning to Northampton for one season as a player. He then became the most successful manager in the club's history, guiding them from the Fourth to First Division between 1961 and 1965. A tricky right-winger, Noel also won 27 caps for Northern Ireland. In the summer of 1987, he moved to Bury, then bowed out of League soccer in 1988-89 following a loan period at Scarborough.

Alan Brown (b. Corbridge 26.8.14; d. Biddecombe 9.3.96). Joined Huddersfield Town in 1933 and, like so many, saw his career interrupted by the war. After hostilities he signed for Burnley in February, 1946, became captain, and skippered 'the Clarets' to promotion from the Second Division. He also played in the 1947 F.A. Cup final, winning a runners-up medal following defeat by Charlton. In 1948 he signed for Notts County, but only made 13 League appearances. Alan turned to management by taking over the helm at Burnley in 1954. He stayed for three years before joining Sunderland. At Roker, he took the club to promotion in 1964. From Wearside he went to Sheffield Wednesday and was manager when 'the Owls' reached Wembley in 1966, losing 3-2 to Everton. He later managed Sunderland for a second time and also assisted Tony Waiters at Plymouth Argyle.

Vic Buckingham (b. Greenwich 23.10.15; d. 27.1.95). Vic signed for Spurs in 1935 and, although the war interrupted his career, he played 234 League games for his one and only League club. In June, 1951 he was appointed manager of Bradford Park Avenue, then two years later he went to West Bromwich Albion where he remained until 1959. A successful period with Ajax followed as the Dutch side won the League in 1960 and the Cup in 1961. At that time, Johan Cruyff was with the club's junior side and Vic helped to develop the youngster's early career. In May, 1961, he became boss at Sheffield Wednesday, but left three years later. In January, 1965 he took charge of Fulham, who were fighting for First Division survival, but left at the end of his three year contract a few months before the club were relegated. In 1947 he captained The Rest of Europe against England and, in 1949, helped to inflict England's first home defeat by a non British country when Ireland won 2-0 at Goodison Park. That same year he was voted Footballer of the Year and won the Sportsman of the Year award in 1950. In all he won 29 caps for the Republic and 7 for Northern Ireland. In 1953, he was appointed manager of Blackburn Rovers, winning promotion to Division One in 1958. He established himself in the left-back role and played a great part in Millwall's successive promotion winning campaigns which resulted in Second Division football. The air of expectation was evident whenever Harry received the ball on the left touchline as he began one of his famous overlapping runs. He always played with great enthusiasm and a determination that the Millwall faithful thrived on. He spent 14 seasons at the club and made 444 League and Cup appearances scoring 39 goals. In 1950, he was expected to join England's preparations for the World Cup but he decided to join Sante Fe in Bogota, Colombia where, apparently, he was to receive 'ten times his English wages'. These days it is wholly acceptable for players to better their careers by playing abroad but Franklin was labelled 'greedy'for his decision to leave. Colombia were not FIFA registered in those days and when Neil returned to Britain disillusioned, two months later, he found himself banned until January, 1951. His career also took a downward turn - no First Division clubs were prepared to take him on and he signed for Second Division Hull City for a then massive £22,500. A crowd of 39,000 saw him make his debut, but he was sadly plagued by injuries and, after 95 League games, one of England's greatest ever talents departed for Crewe and then Stockport County. But Neil Franklin will be fondly remembered by all who saw him - a sublimly cultured defender who made 142 First Division appearances for Stoke - all too few in the top flight.

Jimmy made 162 League appearances for 'the Baggies' between 1946 and 1950 and was a member of the Albion side that won promotion from the Second Division in 1949. He suffered a serious injury at the outset of the 1950-51 season and was forced to retire from the game.

Cyril Poole (b. Mansfield 13.3.21; d. 11.2.96). When local lad Cyril made his debut against New Brighton on 27th February, 1937, he became the youngest ever, at 15 years and 351 days, to play for Mansfield Town. His next game, more than 12 years later, came during the 1950-51 season! In all, he made 16 appearances for 'the Stags', either in defence or up front, then soccer gave way to cricket. Cyril played 366 first class matches for Nottinghamshire County Cricket Club and on three occasions for England.

Harry Potts (b. Hetton-le-Hole 22.10.20; d. 16.1.96). An inside forward for Burnley between 1946 and 1950, for whom he made 165 appearances, Harry completed his playing career with Everton in the mid-fifties. In 1956 he accepted a post as coach at Wolves and a year later was in the hot seat at Shrewsbury. In 1958, he was back on his old stamping ground as manager of Burnley, where he enjoyed great success, blooding youngsters who were to become the club's mainstay. In 1960, Harry guided 'the Clarets' to the Championship and to a place in the F.A. Cup final two years later. In 1973, he became manager of Blackpool and, three years later, returned to Turf Moor as Chief Scout. In 1977, he took up his previous position as manager, staying until 1979.

George Poyser (b. Stanton Hill 6.2.10; d. 30.1.95). A full-back, George began with Wolves in 1928, then moved on to Stourbridge without having made a League appearance at Molineux. In 1930, he joined Mansfield but, before he could make his debut, left for Port Vale. After 73 games he was on the move again, this time to Brentford. He made his debut at the start of the 1934-35 season and had 150 League outings, plus another 201 during the second world war which included a 2-0 Wembley victory over Pompey in 1942. After hostilities, he signed for Plymouth Argyle, but only made three League appearances. Later in his career he managed Notts County and Manchester City.

John Price (b. Easington 25.10.43; d. 6.5.95). Short, stocky winger who joined Burnley from junior football in 1960. Transferred to Stockport in 1965 winning a Fourth Division medal two years later. To Blackburn in 1971 returning to Stockport in 1974. Died in tragic circumstances at 51. Over 350 League appearances.

Charles 'Jazz' Rattray (b. Fleetwood 10.5.11; d. 1.10.95). A tricky outside-right who played pre-war football for Blackpool, Watford, Mansfield, Port Vale and Accrington Stanley.

John Reid (b. Dunfermline 1930; d. 4.7.95). A right-winger with his local club, Dunfermline Athletic, and Queens Park, John was capped as an amateur by Scotland.

Stan Roberts (b. Wrexham 10.4.21; d. 3..4.95). Stan played for his local club, Wrexham, and made his debut on Chrismas Day, 1946. He bagged nine goals in 27 games before moving to New Brighton in July, 1948, where he had 105 outings and scored 25 goals.

William Ross (b. 1921; d. 14.11.95). Played 54 times for Queens Park between 1948 and 1955, before becoming club president and then treasurer, up until his death.

George Rumbold (b. Alton, Hampshire 10.7.11; d. Ipswich, 12.95). A full-back who played for Crystal Palace, Clapton Orient and Ipswich Town. He scored eight of nine penalty kicks for Ipswich from 1946 to 1950.

Edward Sandford (b. Birmingham 22.10.10; d. 14.5.95). Teddy won an F.A. Cup winners' medal with West Bromwich Albion in 1931 and went on to be capped by England. He won a runners-up medal in 1935 and towards the end of his playing career was converted from a forward to a defender. When he left the Albion in 1939, he had played 317 League games and hit 75 goals.

Helmut Schon (b. Dresden 15.12.16; d. Wiesbaden 22.2.96). West Germany coach between 1964 and 1978, he led them to victory in the 1974 World Cup finals, runners-up in 1966 and to third place in 1970. In the European Championship, he masterminded his country's victory in 1972 and saw his side narrowly beaten by Czechoslovakia on penalties four years later.

Frederick Scott (b. Fatfield 6.10.16; d. 9.95). Fred was a pacy outside right who made his debut for York City in the 1936-37 season. The war interrupted his career, but he resumed with 'the Minstermen' after hostilities. But after just two further appearances, York received a then record £4,500 from Nottingham Forest. The former England Schoolboy international went on to play 304 League games for Forest, scoring 39 times, and made his last appearance just 20 days short of his 40th birthday. Later in his career Fred scouted for Sunderland, Sheffield Wednesday, Southampton and Blackpool.

Alan Sealey (b. Canning Town 27.4.42; d. 2.96). Started out with Leyton Orient in 1959 and after just four League games and one goal he joined West Ham. Alan missed the 1964 F.A. Cup final victory over Preston, then a year later enjoyed the fame of scoring twice in the Cup-winners' Cup final win over TSV Munich. He left 'the Hammers' for Plymouth Argyle in 1967, but injury forced his premature retirement after only four League games. Latterly, he had returned to Upton Park to take up a scouting appointment.

Harold Shepherdson M.B.E. (b. Middlesbrough 28.10.18; d. 14.9.95). Harold signed for his local club, Middlesbrough, in 1934 and made his debut as a centre-half in 1937. War interrupted his career and he only made a further three appearances after hostilities. A transfer to Southend followed, but a knee injury terminated his playing career. Harold returned to Middlesbrough, where he became trainer and qualified as a coach. He was appointed by then England manager Walter Winterbottom as full-time trainer to the England team and continued in that role when Alf Ramsey took over the national team in 1963. The height of Harold's career came in 1966, of course, when he was trainer to the World Cup winning side. He received an M.B.E. in 1969.

Archie Smith (b. Larkhall 23.10.24; d. 5.95). A centre-forward with Exeter City, whom he joined in 1948, Archie hit 44 goals in 115 League games for 'the Grecians' before signing for Carlisle United in 1952. He saw out his first class career at Brunton Park, playing 31 League games and scoring on eight occasions.

Herbert Smith (b. Birmingham 17.12.22; d. 11.1.96). Herbert played 51 League games on the right wing for Aston Villa between 1949 and 1954, scoring eight times. In June, 1954, he moved to Southend United, where he had five League outings.

Leslie Smith (b. Ealing 13.3.18; d. Lichfield 20.5.95). A winger who signed professionally for Brentford in 1936 and made his debut for 'the Bees' at 18 and in May, 1939, replaced the injured Stanley Matthews for England against Romania. He played for Brentford during the war and scored both goals against Pompey in the London War Cup final at Wembley. In October, 1945, Leslie signed for Aston Villa and became a real favourite during his seven year stay, during which time he made 181 League appearances and scored 26 goals. He completed a wonderful playing career at Brentford, before retiring in 1953.

Sammy Stewart (b. 1920; d. 27.6.95). Sammy had a distinguished career as a left-back for East Fife between 1938 and 1959, setting up, at the time, a record of 521 appearances for the club. He also played in all three of the Fifers' League Cup successes in 1947-48, 1949-50 and 1953-54.

Reg Stockill (b. York 24.11.13; d. 12.95). Played in the inside-left position for his home town club, York City, in their first ever League match in August, 1929. It was a memorable debut - he scored 'the Minstermen's' first ever League goal - and at 15 years old to boot! Reg only played one more League match before leaving for Scarborough in 1931. Later that year he was snapped up by Arsenal, but only seven appearances resulted, in which he found the net on four occasions. The following year he was on his way to Derby County, where he enjoyed some superb times, including a hat-trick in the 9-3 demolition of West Brom. Then an unfortunate injury hindered his career and he was allowed to leave before the outbreak of war. During hostilities he saw out his playing career with Luton Town and York City.

Joseph Walter (b. Bristol 16.8.1895; d. 24.5.95). When Joe passed away only months before his 100th birthday, he was believed to have been the second oldest ex-professional footballer in England. He started out at Bristol Rovers, for whom he made 82 League appearances, scoring 12 goals, moved onto Herbert Chapman's Huddersfield Town, and won a Championship medal with the club during their first title success of 1924. In 1926, he was transferred to Blackburn, before returning to Bristol Rovers. He was a guest of honour at the opening match of Huddersfield's McAlpine Stadium in 1994.

Dai Ward (b. Barry 16.7.34; d. 1.96). A Welsh international who joined Bristol Rovers in November, 1954 and achieved a club record of scoring in eight consecutive matches. In 174 League games, he scored 90 goals which prompted a move to Cardiff City in 1961. His 17 goals in 31 League games during 1961-62 could not prevent Cardiff's relegation and he was surprisingly sold to Third Division Watford. At Vicarage Road he found the net 29 times during the following campaign, before Brentford bought him for £11,000 in October, 1963, and he played his part fully in their record League win to date, scoring twice in a 9-0 victory over Wrexham.

Billy Whare (b. Guernsey 14.5.24; d. 5.95). Billy was a one club man, making 300 League appearances for Nottingham Forest between his debut in 1949 and 1960. He won a Third Division South Championship medal in 1951, but the pinnacle of his career came in 1959, when he helped Forest beat Luton Town in the F.A. Cup final.

Kenneth Wilkins (b. Salford 24.10.28; d. 8.95). A forward, Ken had two spells with Southampton in the early fifties, sandwiched by a nine month stay at Exeter City. He completed his first class playing career with Fulham, without making any League appearances.

Dennis Woodhead (b. Sheffield 12.6.25; d. 26.7.95). A exciting left-winger, Dennis played 214 League games for Sheffield Wednesday, scoring 71 goals. In 1952, he was part of the side that won the Second Division Championship and was top scorer in 1953-54 with a total of 21 goals. In September, 1955, he moved to Chesterfield, scored 7 times in 15 outings, then left for Derby in January, 1956. A further 24 goals in 94 games followed from the touchline raider, but unfortunate injuries curtailed his career at his last League club, Southport, restricting him to just four appearances.
